A note from the Managing Director

ANTS RIXON

Exploring untapped gems of the winemaking world is much more than just a passion project or an intellectual challenge for Enotria&Coe's buying team and, as UK consumers continue to be among the most adventurous in their buying selections, indigenous grapes and quirky winemaking regions will remain very much on the up in the UK.

Those of you who are familiar with our portfolio will note the additions we have made this year; wineries which each bring something new and distinctive to a list, which - after 50 years - has never looked better!

Looking first to emerging wine regions, we have added Bodegas Marañones' wines from the Sierra de Gredos sub-region of the Madrid DO, Spain, and Mayfield Vineyard's wines from the Orange sub-region of New South Wales, Australia. On top of these discoveries, we are delighted to expand our Spanish selection with the addition of Bodega Cerrón, from Jumilla, and a brand-new Grower Champagne from A. Robert.

As we move through 2023, we are increasingly cognizant of the impacts of external factors on consumer behaviour. Months of inflation, labour shortages, recessionary woes and increases in alcohol duty all have the potential to negatively influence consumer spending, and cumulatively these factors have contributed to double-digit percentage price increases across drinks categories.

We cannot predict with certainty what overall effects we will see in the market in 2023, but our initial analyses suggest an increased polarization - with the lower-ends of the market trading down to more cost-conscious alternatives, whilst the premium and super-premium ends of the market remain resilient. It will be the 'squeezed middle,' in terms of brands, products and occasions, which are likely to experience the most pressure in 2023, and potentially beyond, as consumer behaviour rationalises to take account of external influences.

As we in the trade all prepare to weather the eddies of the market, we recognise the importance in sharing knowledge and best practices between us all. Therefore, Enotria&Coe have committed to making 2023 all about sharing insights with the passionate and talented people and businesses that we work with, listening and learning, and working hand-in-glove with our suppliers and customers to exceed the expectations of consumers to deliver exhilarating drinks experiences.

We are fortunate to work with global thought-leaders and experts in their fields. In our portfolio of producers, icons like Trimbach, Planeta and Domaine Sigalas sit alongside industry-leaders in sustainability, like Martin Codax, Leitz and Gramona, and producers who challenge classical winemaking dynamics within their region, like Aubert et Mathieu in Languedoc-Roussillon, Verum in La Mancha, and Rojomama in Barossa.

In this privileged position, we can act as facilitator in encouraging the sharing of ideas, methodologies and solutions across different product categories, converting precise and actionable insights to influence buying decisions, and promoting sustainability across the supply chain with suppliers, customers and competitors alike.

Ultimately, I wanted to personally thank you as a customer for placing your faith in the integrity of our portfolio, for trusting the people who make up our business, and for supporting the change we are trying to drive in our industry - that of continual improvement and cooperation.

Thank you again. I and the entire Enotria&Coe team wish you all the best for a successful year ahead.

Champagne A. Robert

Champagne, France | Founded in 1722

The first deed for this property in Fossoy (in the far west of the Vallée de la Marne) dates back to 1722. Since then, every generation of the family managing the property has been called "A. Robert": Arnaud Robert has been managing the estate since 2000, inheriting the family traditions from his father Alain and his grandfather André before him.

This is a true grower Champagne in the broadest sense of the phrase; all grapes used to make their wines are grown in one of the family's 68 different plots, which are spread across the Marne Valley and the Côte des Blancs. The house style tends towards the drier end of permitted sugar ranges, with an unusually high proportion of the blend coming from reserve wines (up to 40%). Arnaud is committed to sustainability and has already achieved the Haute Valeur Environnementale (HVE) Level 3.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Champagne A. Robert adds a grower Champagne to our portfolio; a Meunier-dominant blend. Though often considered the region's 'workhorse' grape, it is finding a growing fanbase for the round fruit and bright acidity it brings to wines. This is a well-priced alternative to Brut NVs by Grandes Marques.

About the winemaker

Arnaud Robert is the latest generation of A. Roberts to look after this family-owned grower Champagne producer, taking over the estate in 2000. In the last two decades, Arnaud has implemented thorough changes in vineyard management, mainly to bring to life his commitment to sustainability.

Arnaud's winemaking philosophy is to find the delicate point of equilibrium between "la Terre (earth, land, soil), les Hommes (man), le Temps (time)".

Mayfield Vineyard

Orange, New South Wales, Australia | Founded in 1998

The Mayfield estate was originally granted to explorer William Charles Wentworth as a thank you gift from the Governor of New South Wales. The land was used for livestock until the Thomas family first planted vines in 1999. This is one of the highest vineyards in Orange, between 880-970m, which makes it well-suited to the cool climate varieties the Thomases planted: Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Sauvignon Blanc and Riesling. The Eastham family bought the 91 hectares of Mayfield in 2021, and soon after brought in award-winning viticulturist, Charles Simons. Simons is known for his data-driven, minimal intervention vineyard management. He says, "The ethos of the viticulturist is that the more footsteps, as opposed to tractor tracks, in the vineyard the better. Some of our premium vines will be touched by a human five to six times per year. We aim to do the right thing once, at the right time. Technology helps us achieve this."

In the Easthams' first vintage, their Sophie's Godmother Sauvignon Blanc was featured in Matthew Jukes 100 Best Australian Wines 2022, suggesting this small winery is destined for great things.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Mayfield is the first producer from Orange in the E&C portfolio. Although a small sub-region of New South Wales, it has acquired an excellent reputation in the last decade owing to its altitude. Mayfield offers wines from classic grape varieties grown in an emerging wine region, making a strong contender for by the glass listings.

About the winemaker

Drew Tuckwell has 30 years' experience of winemaking in McLaren Vale, the King Valley, Mudgee, Chianti Classico and Champagne. Drew cut his teeth working at Brokenwood, in the Hunter Valley, and then studied at the University of Adelaide. In addition to winemaking, Drew has worked across the wine industry in PR, retail, judging and writing. Drew has won the Working With Wine Fellowship from Negotiants Australia and also the GT Wine Magazine New Writer Award.

Bodega Cerrón

Jumilla, Spain | Founded in 2004

The Cerdán family has managed this land since 1895, and the family portraits on the labels of all their wines are a nod to this family tradition. But when Juan José and Carlos Cerdán's parents made the decision to break away from the local cooperative, it gave them entirely new levels of creative control over expression of their high quality Monastrell fruit.

The family were early pioneers of organic practices, as they became the first certified organic vineyard in Jumilla in 1995, while still selling their fruit to their local cooperative.

All wines are now micro-vinified from single vineyards, and each parcel is carefully matched to different types of oak or amphora ageing vessels. Their vineyards sit at the highest point of Jumilla up to 1,000m altitude, exposing them to extreme diurnal variation.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Bodega Cerrón adds an innovative take on Monastrell at all price points.

About the winemakers

Brothers Juan José and Carlos Cerdán are the yin and yang of tradition and innovation. Older brother Juan José is attentive to the lessons handed down by their parents and grandparents, assimilating their experience into vineyard management and weathering challenging conditions. Carlos, meanwhile has studied winemaking and worked in wineries around the world to round out his understanding of techniques and styles.

Bodega Marañones

Sierra de Gredos, Madrid, Spain | Founded in 2008

Marañones was founded by Fernando Cornejo in 2008 as one of the true pioneers of the Gredos Garnacha movement. Sitting 80km west of Madrid, the region does not (yet!) have a formal appellation, and its identity is still being shaped by collaborations with talented winemakers, such as that with Fernando Garcia, who has since gone on to found cult winery, Comando G. Marañones was founded on twin commitments to minimal intervention and to sustainability, in a bid to preserve the mosaic of soil types, aspects and altitudes that are a winemaker's dream come true: in the winery, they favour larger vessels that allow the unadulterated, granitic character of the fruit to sing. When Fernando Cornejo announced his retirement, Alma Carraovejas bought the estate in 2020 and will continue to champion the sustainable mission.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Bodega Marañones adds a new winery from the Alma Carraovejas family, this time capturing the spirit of the Sierra de Gredos region. This brings a new selection of lighter, more mineral styles of Garnacha.

About the winemaker

Since Marañones entered the Carraovejas fold, Javier Blasco is now in charge of winemaking. Javier learnt his craft farming the pre-phylloxera vines of Nieva and making the wines of Ossian. He is an expert in minimal intervention and in winemaking that fully expresses a sense of place. We are excited to see what he does next with the patchwork of terroir encompassed by the Marañones estate.

Pizzini

pizzini

King Valley, Australia | Founded in 1978

Alfredo and Katrina Pizzini built Pizzini Wines based on their passions and their commitment to family and Pizzini's Italian heritage. Their winemaking dream began in 1978 when they planted their first vines in King Valley, then in 1994 their first wine under the Pizzini label was produced. Today their four adult children Natalie, Joel, Carlo and Nicole all work in the business alongside Alfredo and Katrina. They are passionate about Italian varieties, growing the likes of Verduzzo, Pinot Grigio, Sangiovese and Nebbiolo and making them in a vibrant, drinkable and approachable style. A little slice of Italy in Australia.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Pizzini brings a new selection of Italian grape varieties to our Australian portfolio and showcases the diversity of Victoria.

About the winemaker

Joel Pizzini, is son to founders Alfredo and Katrina Pizzini. Ever since he was a little kid he knew that he wanted to stay on the family farm and follow in his father Alfredo's footsteps. While studying at Charles Sturt University in Wagga Wagga, Joel did three vintages with King Valley Wines. After finishing his degree he has worked at leading wineries in both Australia and Italy, doing vintages at Leeuwin Estate (Margaret River), Stonier Wines (Mornington Peninsula), Marengo (Piedmont) and Isole e Olena (Tuscany).

Joel still spends a lot of time in the vineyard and his knowledge of every contour of Pizzini's 70 hectare vineyard means he works very closely with Alfredo now as they constantly evolve their grape production in the pursuit of quality and making wines that people love to drink. He also takes a deep interest in new clones of Italian wine varieties as they become available in Australia.

Peter Wallbridge

Wine Buying Manager

Can you tell us a bit about the new producers in this year's portfolio and why they were chosen?

The first is Bodegas Cerrón, a new young producer in Jumilla who is achieving that perfect balance of crafting great value entry level wines, with spectacular small production fine wines.

The second is Bodegas Marañones, the founders of the Gredos Garnacha movement. Incredibly unique, they represent everything the ambitious sommelier is looking for in the "New Spain".

How has the focus on sustainability changed in the recent months?

Sustainability has always been a key driver through my own 4 years at E&C, but what is becoming more apparent is the level of detail we need to assess when bringing in new suppliers. The sustainability chain counts at every stage from farming, through to winemaking, to the supply chain and ultimately to us, so they must demonstrate true sustainability credentials to be welcomed into the E&C portfolio. Having a dedicated technical team devoted to this issue means we can really be on the front foot with regards to sustainability within the E&C portfolio.

Have you noticed the growth of any trends in any particular regions that are likely to continue in 2023?

Whilst the noise around amphora has dimmed, we are still seeing its use to allow the fruit profile to shine, especially in Spain and Chile. Some examples would be Verum, Lalomba (Ramón Bilbao) and De Martino.

Single Vineyard wines also continue to be held in very high esteem. Of particular note, Abadia Retuerta were awarded their own unique denomination of Vino de Pago Abadia Retuerta last year.

As Burgundy and Champagne prices increase, people are looking for credible alternatives. For great quality champagne substitutes, look to Gramona or Hattingley. The oaked verdejos of Ossian as a White Burgundy solution and the top cuvée from Scala Dei, Sant Antoni, will happily go head-to-head with Chambolle!

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Sergio De Luca

Buying Director (Italy)

Can you tell us what the year ahead is looking like for Italian wines?

2022 brought a lot of new additions to our Italian portfolio, so this year we will continue to encourage them to flourish alongside the other wines we have introduced since the pandemic. After 38 years nurturing and curating Enotria's Italian portfolio, I am incredibly proud of the success our core range of Italian suppliers has experienced, so I want to ensure their continued success for the years to come.

You have been instrumental in building Enotria's reputation as a leading Italian wine specialist since joining the company in 1985 and have built an incredible legacy for the future. What are your priorities for the year ahead?

I feel very honoured to have worked for Enotria all these years! I keep saying to my family and to all the new people working at Enotria, how lucky I was. This, for me, has always been a way of life, more than a plain job. And I would love to instill in the future people here the same passion I have for this job! After building such strong partnerships with our Italian producers over the years, it is very important to me that there is a smooth transition between me and my successor, who is very experienced and a safe pair of hands. My main focus will be sharing my knowledge with them and facilitating the establishment of their relationships with the producers, as trust is the how we best work together. I will be proud to leave the company with a great legacy.

Which of our current producers are changing the game in the industry?

After the pandemic it has been a transitional period, but the increased focus on sustainability for most of my producers has been fantastic! Caprai, Fontanafredda, Planeta, Frescobaldi, Bertani, E. Pira, to mention only few, have been really involved in setting up their companies for a cleaner planet and a cleaner future!

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Rachael Pogmore

Buyer (Commercial & South America)

Welcome to Enotria&Coe’s Buying team!
What are you most looking forward to in your new role?

Meeting and working with talented winemakers worldwide to add to our exceptional wine portfolio. Also driving the agenda to change the perception of UK bottled bulk wine which has a huge opportunity to shine considering challenges with shipping delays, container availability, wholesale energy prices and a focus on reducing carbon footprint.

Why did you make the decision to join the company?

I’ve worked with Enotria for 8 years on and off as a buyer at several of our accounts and have always admired the breadth of the wine range, along with the ethos the business brings.

What do you feel your expertise brings to the company?

I’ve covered both aspects of buying and selling wine across various areas of the industry – as both a buyer and NAM in Grocery multiples, to brand management across Indies and On Trade, and most recently developing a sourcing strategy within e-commerce. This breadth of experience gives me a well-rounded view of priorities for our various stakeholders - from the producer to our sales team and customer accounts.

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Richard Lewis

Buyer (Other Europe, Champagne, Eastern Mediterranean, North America)

How was your recent visit to North America?

What a trip! This was an impressive feat of organisation by the California Wine Institute, bringing together buyers from all over the world into the Napa Valley for expert seminars, tastings, and networking opportunities. I then travelled from the depths of the Monterey AVA up to the newly minted West Sonoma Coast AVA visiting lots of wineries, taking in as much as I could. Stay tuned for potential new additions to the list. Though the exchange rate on the dollar remains a huge challenge!

Anything of note regarding the harvest/yield in certain regions this last year?

The decision in Champagne to allow very high yields in 2022 might be music to the ears of customers who have been struggling to get their bubbles brand of choice over the last couple of years. Supply has been restricted due to the regional decision to limit production during the COVID lockdowns, a poor 2021 harvest, and a surge in market demand. However, given the ageing requirements of champagne (minimum 15 months in bottle, but often longer) it will take time for the 2022 wines to be released. Things are likely to remain tight this year.

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Emma Robinson

Buyer (New Zealand, Australia, South Africa)

Firstly, can you tell us a bit about the new producers in this year's portfolio and why they were chosen?

We are very excited to have two new producers from Australia joining the portfolio. The first is Pizzini, run by an Italian family based in King Valley Victoria. As Italian varieties are really hot right now, especially with the changing climate, it felt like a natural fit to have an Australian producer with Italian heritage in the portfolio. The second is Mayfield, a producer based in Orange in New South Wales. Very little is known about this region currently, but it is certainly up and coming. It is a region with the highest altitude vineyards in all of Australia producing restrained, elegant styles of wine. We are excited to champion a wine region that is so new to the UK.

How has the focus on sustainability changed in the recent months in your regions?

New Zealand continues to be true pioneers in sustainability, but in the past year, there has been a shift in mentality in Australia. This is particularly due to the reform of Sustainable Winegrowing Australia and the large number of new members. South Africa is also improving its sustainability, however it is somewhat trickier due to the huge number of different growers, costs and the fact that a number of producers may not have the funding to make such drastic changes. What is certain, is that a number of producers understand the importance of following sustainable trends, which have been driven by demand and expectation.

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Champagne & Sparkling Wines

Demand for sparkling wine at all price points is riding high and continues to outperform other wine categories. We are embracing this trend with a diverse portfolio of fizz from around the world, including familiar faces from Champagne, England, great value Crémant, Cava and Prosecco, to less usual suspects such as Tokaj, Brazil and Galicia.

There has been a trade-off between Champagne and Prosecco since the beginning of the decade; Champagne has been on the rise, gaining an additional 8% share in fizz sales, while Prosecco has been dropping, driving a decline in sparkling sales from Italy.

When it comes to sparkling alternatives, French and English Sparkling Wines had a successful 2022, while Argentina has started to emerge in this category.

Champagne

Our carefully curated list of Champagne producers features those that we feel deserve a place on every list. Each showcasing the terroir of the village from which they hail, our agency Champagnes are the result of individuality, style and craft. Our range spans from household names to the lesser known, emerging Champagne houses and our new Grower Champagne A. Robert.

Champagne

J.M. Gobillard & Fils

If you're after the true heart of Champagne, then look no further. The Gobillard family lives mere metres from the grave of Dom Pérignon, and following decades of hard work, have secured 26 hectares of vines, much of which is Premier Cru that was once owned by the Benedictine Hautvillers Abbey. A handful of carefully selected growers tend to a further 125 hectares nestled in the most prestigious crus, yielding a range of Champagnes that accentuate brightness, minerality and elegance over power and richness.

Champagne Jacquart

Housed in the opulent 19th century Hôtel de Brimont, on the Boulevard Lundy in Reims, Champagne Jacquart is kept in good company, with fellow Champagne producers Krug and Roederer among its neighbours. As well as enabling winemaker Floriane to pick the best fruit for wines such as their cuvée de prestige, Alpha, and the house's benchmark Blanc de Blancs, the many growers and vineyards supplying Jacquart also guarantee consistency and quality for the core non-vintage cuvée, Brut Mosaïque.

Maison Telmont

Maison Telmont was founded in 1912 by Henri Lhôpital, who was inspired by the Champagne riots of 1910 to establish a Champagne house that would espouse the values of quality that he believed were under threat. Since then, the Champagne house has been handed down through four generations of the family, always staying true to crafting wines "in the name of Mother Nature". Living by three core values: humility, courage, and loyalty they are a driving force in the region for respecting biodiversity, adopting renewable energy sources, and ecological design. They are questioning all touchpoints between their wines and the environment by abolishing superfluous packaging, and using only 100% recyclable green glass. In 2017, some of Telmont's plots received organic certification, and has committed to certifying all estate vines by 2031.

Pol Roger

Pol Roger has been producing exceptional Champagne for over 160 years.

To its credit, the house remains small, family-owned, fiercely independent and unrivalled in its reputation for quality. Indeed, it's this quality which lead to Sir Winston Churchill's lifelong attachment to Pol Roger, who famously insisted, "In defeat I need it, in victory I deserve it".

Bollinger

The House of Bollinger was created, in 1829, in Ay, through the exciting partnership of two eminent men, Admiral Athanase-Louis-Emmanuel, the Count of Villermont, who owned vines on the Montagne de Reims, and Jacques-Joseph-Placide Bollinger, his son-in-law. Since then, it has earned a reputation as one of the most respected and reliable Champagne houses, producing full-bodied Champagnes characterised by great longevity and grace.

Since its founding in 1743, Moët & Chandon has been passing down unrivalled winemaking savoir-faire and an innovative, pioneering spirit from generation to generation. Claude Moët was the first person to embody these values when he made his Champagne the most sought-after in Europe. The 1,190 hectares of rich limestone soil – 50% of which is classed as Grand Cru and 25% Premier Cru – today make up the largest vineyard area in Champagne.

Veuve Clicquot

Veuve Clicquot is undoubtedly one of the best known and most recognisable of all Champagne marques. Founded in 1772, the house was built on the formidable reputation of the widow Clicquot, who managed the business for most of the 19th century. The vibrant orange label has become a hallmark of consistency and Champagne of the highest quality.

Ruinart

Way back in 1729, Nicolas Ruinart, a Reims draper like his father, started his first account ledger devoted to “wine with bubbles”. This ledger serves as the birth certificate for the first Champagne House ever created. Since its inception, Champagne Ruinart has taken pride in the excellence of its cuvées. Interestingly, the unique shape of its bottle pays tribute to the historic bottles of the eighteenth century.

Krug

Krug may well be part of the Louis Vuitton-Moët Hennessy group, and incorporated into the Veuve Clicquot company; however, it is still a family run business. Since 1843, when the firm was established in Germany, Krug has been producing oak-fermented wines, a practice that adds complexity, finesse and richness. Long ageing on the yeast, strict selection of grapes, and a unique father-to-son winemaking tradition all help to create the quality that makes Krug so highly regarded.

Perrier-Jouët

Ever vigilant to the changing tastes of its customer, Perrier-Jouët has a remarkable history of innovation. In 1854, it became the first-ever producer of dry Champagne, and they were the first House to release ‘millésimes’ or ‘vintage’ Champagne. A few years down the track, in 1858, it was also the first House to state the ‘cru,’ or village name, and the year of the harvest on the cork, and then on the label itself by the 1860s.

Champagne Laurent-Perrier

Situated in Tours-sur-Marne, just outside Reims, Laurent-Perrier is one of France's most respected Grande Marque Champagnes. Their rosé is one of the rare Champagnes made exclusively from Pinot Noir, by the traditional method. Laurent-Perrier is now managed the two daughters of Bernard de Nonancourt who catapulted the House to global fame. Alongside Cellar Master Michel Fauconnet, Alexandra and Stéphanie have continued to establish this as one of the region's largest producers. Grand Siècle is unique as a prestige cuvée in that it is always a blend of three declared vintages. Laurent-Perrier shies away from vintage styles because they believe that skilful assemblage can achieve better wines than purely relying on vintage conditions.

Lanson

When Jean-Baptiste Lanson took the helm of the Champagne house, the company prospered and exports grew, particularly in Great Britain, where Lanson was awarded the Royal Warrant by Queen Victoria in 1900 - an honour it has retained to this day. Early on in the company's history, the classically crisp house style was established when the family made the decision to vinify its wines without malolactic fermentation. This, combined with extended ageing in their cellars before release, contributes to what can best be described as beautifully complex and rewarding wines.

Louis Roederer

Made by one of the very last family-owned large houses with their own grapes, from 214 hectares of fully-owned vineyards, Roederer is arguably one of the most reliable non-vintage Champagnes of them all. The toasty house style is a result of the decision to age for three years on lees with reserve wines.

In 1891, Auguste-Louis Montaudon took on the prestigious role of Cellar Master in Epernay and inspired his son, Auguste-Eugène to subsequently found Maison Montaudon. The Champagne house grew its reputation in 1920s Paris, resulting in it becoming the house Champagne at the iconic Folies Bergères. With its colourful history, today Maison Montaudon represents excellence at an accessible price point.

Instantly recognisable, Armand de Brignac Champagnes are the life's work of the Cattier family. Living and working the land of Champagne for over 250 years their first release of this wine was in 2006. Using a careful selection of the finest reserve wines of three vintages the resulting champagne is aged on its lees in some of the deepest cellars in the region. Burgundy

Veuve Ambal

The association of widows or ‘veuves’ and sparkling wine extends beyond Champagne, south into Burgundy where Veuve Ambal, the leading producer of Crémant de Bourgogne, is based. Marie Ambal married a Parisian banker and, when he died, returned to her home village of Rully in Côte Chalonnaise to continue her family involvement in wine. Today, Veuve Ambal has 230 hectares of vineyards in Burgundy and is one of the most pristine wineries in the region.

Sylvain Gaudron

The Gaudron family – fourth generation Gilles Gaudron is currently at the helm – have been making wine in Vouvray, Vernou since 1890, farming a 27-hectare vineyard, two-thirds of it with an average age of 30 years. The cellars date back to the 13th century, with 1km of galleries burrowed deep into the rock. These are classy wines, superb vehicles for Loire Chenin Blancs – all racily fresh with a fine, chalky minerality.

Terre di Sant’ Alberto

Terre di Sant’Alberto consists of ten hectares of manually worked hillside vineyards in the heart of Valdobbiadene, overlooked by a small chapel dedicated to Saint Albert. One of the peculiarities of this chapel is that it used to house a “Sator Square” i.e. an ancient plaque on the wall with the Latin inscription:

O P E R A
R O T A S

This can be read backwards, rotated, and upside down, which is handy, because it is also printed just above the front labels. Nobody really knows what it means, but it is probably an early-Christian symbol relating to ploughing and farming, God and nature, which will probably make a lot of sense once you have finished the bottle.

Contratto

The Contratto cellars were carved into the limestone underneath the winery and the vineyards in the 1860s. The labyrinthine cellars are now recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site, while the winery is famous as a pioneer of non-Champagne sparkling wines. Their Moscato and Asti sparkling wines, made in the Champagne method, were incredibly popular worldwide at the beginning of the 20th century. These historic export agreements are the reason behind the “For England” label on the Blanc de Noir Pas Dosé to this day.

Since the Rivetti family bought Contratto in 2011, they have employed their signature elan to take Contratto to new heights. They have invested in new vineyards, particularly focusing on high altitude plantings of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

Fontanafredda

Founded in 1858 by King Vittorio Emanuele II as a gift to his mistress, Rosa Vercellana, Fontanafredda has since become one of the most renowned wineries in Italy. The estate covers over 250 acres of vineyards, with a focus on traditional Piedmontese grape varieties. In the capable hands of Oscar Farinetti, founder of the Eataly chain of Slow Food restaurants, the winery has found its true fame.

Over the years, Fontanafredda has been dedicated to producing high-quality wines that reflect the unique terroir of the Langhe region. From its signature Barolo wines to its elegant Barbaresco and Barbera d'Alba, Fontanafredda's wines have won numerous awards and accolades for their quality and craftsmanship.

In addition to its wine production, Fontanafredda also offers a range of hospitality services, including a hotel, restaurant, and wine tasting experiences. The winery is committed to sustainable agriculture and has implemented a range of environmentally friendly practices, including the use of renewable energy and the reduction of chemical inputs.

Hungary

Sauska

Christian and Andrea Sauska have been crafting highly admired Hungarian wines for nearly 20 years. In the famous Tokaj region they make exceptional dry white wines from both local and international grape varieties, as well as classic sweet aszú and late harvest wines. Traditional method sparkling wines are also made under the expert eye of Régis Camus of Rare Champagne, with a dedicated new cellar being constructed in Budapest. The second winery is in Villány, near Christian's hometown in the deep south on the border with Croatia. This winery produces red and rosé wines and is home to a world-class restaurant. The family's relentless drive for quality includes practising organic viticulture (non-certified) and employing biodynamic practises in the vineyard. The Sauska family are pushing the boundaries of quality, wine in Hungary, proving its potential as a prime destination for fine wine lovers.

Gramona

Gramona leads the pack in terms of premium Cava production. Combining six generations of accrued family experience, Gramona represents integrity at every point in the production process. From indigenous grapes and biodynamic viticulture, to a minimum ageing period of 30 months, Gramona is uncompromising in its commitment to excellence.

This painstaking attention to detail has earned Gramona consistently high praise and scores from pundits, including a Platinum award in the 2020 Decanter World Wine Awards. Perhaps more impressively, Gramona is the only sparkling winemaker ever to win the overall top spot in Spain's prestigious La Guia Peñin wine guide.

Cava

Pere Ventura

Pere Ventura's prestigious Cava house was established in 1992, but draws on a sparkling wine heritage that extends deep into the past. In fact, it was Pere's great-grandfather who was responsible for the first Cava ever made by the classical method used in Champagne, and his grandfather and father continued to hone their technique in producing Cavas of distinction and poise.

Franck Massard

Crowned with the impressive title of the UK's best sommelier in 1996, Frenchman Franck Massard quickly forged an even more illustrious reputation as a winemaker. After falling in love with Catalunya – and Priorat in particular – he took the leap and branched out on his own. His are wines of character which have a story to tell, sourced from vineyards that often endure extremes of altitude, steep slopes and marginal growing conditions.

Vins Petxina

Moisès Virgili inherited vines that had been tended by his family for several generations. After studying oenology and working as a consultant for various other wineries, Moisès decided to set up a cellar in the garage of his own house. Today, he has three full-time employees, and casual workers in the vineyard. The old vines are found in tiny parcels, which are tended with care and humility, drawing on Moisès' memories in the vineyards helping his father.

Mar de Frades

Meaning 'Sea of the Friars' in Galician, Mar de Frades lies in the Arousa estuary, overlooking the Atlantic ocean. Proximity to cooling ocean breezes creates the characteristic freshness and aromatic intensity of the wines produced here, and the location is also reflected in the design of the winery; created to resemble a sailboat. Innovation is key at Mar de Frades, and their iconic blue bottle is designed to symbolise the modernity of Atlantic wines.

Hattingley Valley

From its birth as a farm diversification project back in 2008, family-owned Hattingley Valley is today recognised as one of the leading producers of English wines. Located in the heart of rural Hampshire, they now farm some 24 hectares of vines across two separate sites and their custom-built eco-friendly winery was the first in the UK to adopt solar power. The traditional method is integral to making their exceptional sparkling wines and they owe their unique style to the use of barrel ageing, as well as extensive ageing on lees. This has led them to win much international acclaim and a multitude of awards ever since the launch of their first wines in 2013.

Lyme Bay

With an increasing demand for premium quality English wines, our buying team set out to source a producer with a range of wines with provenance we could be proud of. Which is where Lyme Bay Winery comes into the picture. Everything the Devon-based producer does is inspired by tradition, however it's not afraid to push the envelope and make the most of modern production techniques. These award-winning wines are fruit-forward and pure, with quintessentially English flavours.

As the global landscape of wine grows ever more diverse and competitive, France continues to evolve and develop as the producer of some of the world's greatest wines. With international demand for Bordeaux and Burgundy showing no sign of diminishing, sourcing value in these regions becomes increasingly complex, but it's a treasure hunt that we relish.

Estates from the Loire, Alsace and along the length of the Rhône also feature heavily, alongside an intriguing selection of producers in the sun-hued south-west, and clustered around the sparkling Mediterranean.

The share of wines originating from France has grown over the years, contributing 20% of all 2022 sales. Share of volume from both Languedoc-Roussillon and South-West France has declined, making way for appellations from Vin de France and wines from Provence.

Grenache has continued to flourish since the start of the decade, enabling the share of sales of rosé to grow to 22% in 2022.

Sheltered by the densely forested Vosges Mountains, Alsace is celebrated for its aromatic white wines. Unlike Germany, the winemaking philosophy here is to ferment all the grape sugar into alcohol, resulting in dry, full-bodied wines. There is no better expression of this than the wines from the world-renowned Trimbach.

Alsace

Trimbach

Maison Trimbach is unquestionably one of the greatest Alsace producers, highly regarded for their historic excellence and their visionary spirit. Even after 13 generations, the family (Pierre, Jean, Anne, Julien, Frédérique and Pauline currently) remain true to the philosophy handed down to them by their 19th century ancestor, Frédéric Emile. This means bone-dry wines that are strong on structure, longevity and fruit, with unparalleled elegance, balance and food-friendly versatility.

The estate offers a pure reflection of the sun-warmed, diverse terroirs surrounding Ribeauvillé, the medieval town the family has called home for over a century. With an average vine age of 45 years, their 58 hectares of vines stretch over more than 70 parcels and 9 villages, including Grand Crus Geisberg, Schlossberg, Mandelberg and Brand.

Burgundy is home to some of the world’s most renowned and highly sought-after vineyards, producing exceptionally memorable wines.

From Chablis in the far north via the picturesque Côte d’Or to the warmer climes of the Mâconnais and Beaujolais in the south, our collection of wines from this prestigious region is a divine selection of world-class Chardonnay and elegant, beautifully crafted Pinot Noir.

Burgundy

Maison Joseph Drouhin

Maison Joseph Drouhin has accrued five generations of experience since it was established in 1880. The family is continuously dedicated to tradition and respect for Burgundy's deep heritage. Nonetheless, the winery was one of the first in the region to experiment with organic production, with all vineyards officially being certified organic from 2009. The 80 hectares are spread across the most prestigious appellations of the region, including the famous Beaune Clos des Mouches, that Maurice Drouhin (son of the founder, Joseph) had to painstaking buy plot by plot from the many neighbours who had owned it previously. Today, siblings Frédéric, Laurent, Philippe and Véronique share management responsibilities and each contribute their unique expertise to maintain excellence in all areas of operations.

Chablis

Louis Michel & Fils

That classic tasting note for benchmark, top-quality Chablis – precise, linear, the scent of sea-washed shingle – could have been composed with the wines of Louis Michel in mind. That much overused tasting note descriptor, ‘minerality’, truly applies here. These are wines for the true Chablis lover from a producer who turned his back on oak in the 1970s and has stuck to those principles ever since. Sample the leesy, roundly, nutty complexity of wines such as the remarkable Grand Cru Les Clos and you’ll see why. What could oak possibly add? Guillaume Gicqueau-Michel, the sixth generation of the Michel family to manage the estate established in 1850, applies the same principles of minimal intervention and precise expression to every wine in the range, from Petit Chablis up to Grand Cru.

Bernard Defaix

After speaking to Didier and Hélène Defaix for just five minutes, you start to realise what makes their wines so special. Not only do they have holdings in some of Chablis’ best-situated vineyards, their attention to detail in vine growing and winemaking is astounding. Their focus has been on taking care of the vineyard through improving soil structure, biological pest control and painstaking vegetation management; their cellar work is similarly precise. All this enables the potential of each ‘terroir’ to fully express itself through fine, powerful and distinguished wines, which have a succulence of texture married to serious intensity of flavour that makes them delicious young, yet also capable of considerable cellaring.

Côte de Beaune

Maillard Père et Fils

One of Burgundy's friendliest and most down-to-earth winemakers, Pascal Maillard crafts particularly well-priced wines with juicy, fruit-forward personalities from his 20-hectare domaine in Chorey-lès-Beaune. In an appellation with a reputation for hardness, Pascal has proved to be an expert at bringing charm and appeal to his wines, which display beautiful fruit balanced with an intense minerality.

Domaine Alain Chavy

A decade ago, brothers Alain and Jean-Louis Chavy split their family estate (Domaine Gérard Chavy) down the middle, with each brother receiving 6.5 hectares of prime Puligny-Montrachet vineyard. Alain has proved himself a very skillful winemaker, producing elegant and very stylish Puligny-Montrachets in a cellar beneath his property in the heart of the village of Puligny.

Jean-Michel Gaunoux has brought an extraordinary energy and zealous enthusiasm to the seven-hectare estate he took over in 1990. Focused around Meursault, he also owns vineyards in Puligny, Volnay and Pommard. Jean-Michel's Meursaults are classically rich and opulent, with fresh balancing acidity. Jean-Michel is one of our few suppliers to keep back a proportion of his production every year in order to be able to offer older vintages when the wines are fully mature.

Crémant de Bourgogne

Veuve Ambal

The association of widows or 'veuves' and sparkling wine extends beyond Champagne, south into Burgundy where Veuve Ambal, the leading producer of Crémant de Bourgogne, is located. Its story began in 1898, when Marie Ambal, following the death of her Parisian banker husband, returned to her home village of Rully in Côte Chalonnaise to pursue her family's involvement in wine. Today, the maison continues to be run by the same family, with 6th generation Aurélien Piffaut now at the helm. With 230 hectares of vineyards in Burgundy, Veuve Ambal is one of the most pristine wineries in the region.

Côte Chalonnaise

Domaine Michel Juillot

Mercurey and the Côte Chalonnaise run through the veins of the Juillot family, whose domaine of more than 30 hectares is one of the most respected in the area – praised for wines that champion fruit and fresh elegance over exoticism and extraction. There's evidence that the Juillots were tilling the vineyards of Mercurey as long ago as 1404, and Louis Juillot – great-grandfather of current manager Laurent – planted the first vines after the phylloxera catastrophe.

In 1840, the Ferret family established this 18-hectare estate, which is located at the heart of the most famous 'climats' of the Fuissé amphitheatre. Renowned for 'parcel by parcel' vinification pioneered by Madame Ferret, today this tradition is carried on by winemaker Audrey Baccini. At Domaine Ferret, they are driven by the belief that in order to make a great wine, one needs, above all, to respect one's heritage. Add to this a tailor-made approach to viticulture, and you've got a collection of truly sublime, complex wines.

Vignerons des Terres Secrètes

Vignerons des Terres Secrètes, or 'winegrowers from the Secret Lands,' is a group of producers from southern Burgundy. Located in the Mâconnais, they produce excellent wines from the best terroirs of the rolling, sun-washed landscape of the Mâconnais region. Vignerons des Terres Secrètes are certified 'Vignerons engagés,' which is a French sustainable wine growing certification governed by the following guidelines: protection of the environment; a recycling scheme; a quality traceability scheme from the vine to the glass; and ensuring producers are paid fairly. 'Vignerons Engagés' also supports local initiatives including the refurbishment of old buildings, to protect the region's history and legacy.

One of the few winemaking regions in the world to focus on a single grape variety, the vineyards in Beaujolais are planted almost entirely with Gamay, the grape from which Beaujolais’s signature style is produced.

With light, vibrant and fruity reds combining refreshing acidity, fruit-driven flavours and low tannins, Beaujolais offers a vast contrast to the heavy, tannic styles of the surrounding regions. Propelling Beaujolais into public awareness and popularity, the region is also home to the now-famed Beaujolais Nouveau; a tradition that offers an early-release style bottled a mere 6-8 weeks after harvest and with no ageing at all.

Beaujolais

Domaine Chermette

Pierre and Martine Chermette are producers of serious Beaujolais. They avoid the ubiquitous use of cultured yeasts and chaptalisation, believing that character comes from ripe grapes and local yeasts. Consequently, the wines are a revelation, showing what the Gamay grape is truly capable of when handled with respect. All the wines from this excellent estate are bottled without filtration.

A region producing more fine wine than any other, Bordeaux is renowned for some of the world’s most sought-after bottles; offering white and dessert wines as well as reds.

From the sun-drenched terraces of medieval Saint-Émilion to the glacial gravel of Médoc, Bordeaux encompasses a multitude of terroirs and microclimates, and this is reflected in the region’s vast array of wine styles.

Bordeaux

La Passion des Terroirs

La Passion des Terroirs (previously known as Lucien Lurton) has been owned by the Lurton family for six generations. Having revived several of the region's Grands Crus Classés, the Lurtons have established themselves as one of the most emblematic families in Bordeaux. In the 1950s, 3rd generation winemaker Lucien Lurton acquired a number of Bordeaux flagship properties including many classified growths. A great connoisseur and champion of the best terroirs, he made his name by defending many parcels, which were coveted by gravel merchants when the vineyards were in major crisis.

In 1992, he handed down his properties to his 10 children. Today, Denis has Desmirail (3ème Cru Classé Margaux); Henri has Brane-Cantenac (2ème Cru Classé Margaux); Marie-Laure has Villegeorge (Haut-Médoc); Sophie runs Bouscaut (Cru Classé Graves) and Lamothe-Bouscaut (Pessac Léognan) which was purchased in 1999; Gonzague looks after Château Durfort-Vivens (2ème Cru Classé Margaux), and also manages Château Haut-Bages Libéral (5ème Cru Classé Pauillac) with his wife, Claire Villars; Thierry is owner of Camarsac (Entre-deux Mers), and until recently Bérénice was at the helm of the sumptuous Château Climens (1er Cru Classé Barsac). A majority share in Château Climens was sold to the Moitry family in 2022, who are dedicated to continue Bérénice's fantastic work. Climens remains today the only First Classified Growth in Bordeaux to be certified biodynamic.

Entre-Deux-Mers & Bordeaux

Château Sainte Marie

Sainte-Marie owner Stéphane Dupuch’s determination and superb results stand out against the ocean of indifferent Entre-Deux-Mers whites and Bordeaux Supérieur reds that are produced in the region. Since the property has been in Stéphane’s hands, he and his wife have raised the standards enormously. In a region of varied soils, the focus is to plant vine varieties in the places that will bring out the best qualities in their fruit, fully allowing the grapes to express the inherent, subtle qualities of their terroir.

Château des Gravières

A small château in the Graves appellation of Bordeaux, Merlot-dominated where usually Cabernet Sauvignon is king, Château des Gravières makes wines that satisfy both the palate and the pocket. The Labuzan family, who continue to own and run the winery today, with brothers Thierry and Denis at the helm, are part of a long line of wine specialists, their first Labuzan vines being planted as far back as 1847. Today, despite a continued focus on Merlot, the winery has expanded into growing Cabernet Sauvignon, Sémillon and Sauvignon Blanc varietals.

Margaux

Château d’Issan

Château d’Issan - Margaux Third Growth from the 1855 Bordeaux classification - is reported to have been served at the marriage of Eleanor d'Aquitaine and Henry Plantagenet during the Middle Ages. There are records of Château d’Issan being kept in the cellars of The Prince of Wales during the 18th Century, and in the late 19th Century the Emperor Franz-Joseph of Austria thought so highly of this wine that he regularly served it at court. The Château's motto is “For the Tables of Kings and the Altars of Gods” – if you are looking for a claret with pedigree, you can't go far wrong with this timeless classic.

Saint-Julien

Château Talbot

This important estate owes its name to Constable Talbot, an English warrior defeated at the battle of Castillon in 1453. Cloaking the banks of the estuary of the Gironde, the estate vineyard extends over the famous outcrops sculpted in ancient quaternary gravels, the only conditions in which such truly fine wines come into being, in the area of St-Julien.

Pauillac

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse is a Pauillac Fifth Growth from the 1855 Bordeaux classification. Until 1750, Grand-Puy meant a low, gravel hill with one single property. However, in the mid XVIII century, Pierre Ducasse bought a part of the Grand-Puy vineyard in Pauillac, which was then divided into 2 vineyards: Grand-Puy Ducasse and Grand-Puy Lacoste. Today, the Château Grand-Puy Ducasse vineyard is 40 hectares, divided between three main plots within the Pauillac appellation which neighbours first growth Pauillac estates. Planted in the sandy Garonne gravel, the vines have an average age of 25 years, with 62% of them Cabernet Sauvignon and 38% Merlot.

Saint-Estèphe

Château Phélan Ségur

Château Phélan Ségur, in the iconic Bordeaux Saint-Estèphe appellation, had an origin a little different to the majority of French Châteaux; it was established by Bernard O'Phelan, a young Irish wine merchant, in the 19th century. Four families and two centuries of winemaking passion later, Château Phélan Ségur has created an identity based on elegance and finesse. Ancestral know-how, authenticity and ultimate respect of traditions are of the most importance to the team, who continue to craft quality wines today, within what they perceive as a 'living heritage.'

Château La Gaffelière

Under the tutelage of the same family since the Comte de Malet-Roquefort acquired the property in the 1705, the owners are committed to constant modernisation. In 1993, winemaking legend Stéphane Derenoncourt made his first vintage at Gaffelière, before he became an international winemaking consultant. Since then, over half of the 22 hectares have been replanted to breathe new life into the wines.

Château Rol Valentin

Château Rol Valentin is a newcomer to the Bordeaux wine scene, emerging as one of the new ‘garagiste’ styles that have sprung into the French wine world in the past ten years. Established in 1994 by Eric Prisette, a retired professional footballer, the winery produces only miniscule quantities of high quality wine, characterised by deep colours, intense concentrated and ripe fruits, with strong hints of new wood. The winery spans just five hectares of vineyards, located on the north-western part of Saint-Émilion plateau.

Château Orisse du Casse is owned by Richard Dubois, who previously was a winemaker at the iconic Château Pétrus. Lying in the foothills of Saint-Émilion, in the commune of Saint Sulpice de Faleyrens, Orisse du Casse benefits from a wide variety of terroirs, ranging from gravelly hilltops to sandy soils on clay. Central to Orisse du Casse's philosophy is harvesting and vinifying plot by plot, grape variety by grape variety and terroir by terroir to produce incredibly complex wines, with significant ageing potential.

The vineyard area remained the same for two generations, 11 hectares. However, when Jacques Dupuy took over in 1981, Château Gros Caillou expanded to a further 9 hectares on the best part of the appellation. Today, with his son Eric, both manage Château Gros Caillou and have significantly improved the winery through their passion and efforts.

Their flagship Sancerre comes from one of the finest vineyards in the appellation, Domaine du Rochoy, a 25-acre monopole vineyard carved out of the flint hillside overlooking the Loire River. Rochoy offers grapes with wonderful ripeness and incredible mineral expression from Silex soils, the rarest terroir in Sancerre. As a certified organic producer, Domaine Laporte makes their wines in a very traditional and natural way, ensuring a sense of purity and excellence in the finished product.

Château Favray

The well-established vineyards of Château Favray sit in an enviable position: south-facing, sun-filled and with a hillside location high above the Nohain river. This is quintessential Pouilly-Fumé in a fresh, open and relatively fruit-forward style, helped by the presence of heat-reflective pebbles in the limestone soil. And yet, as recently as the beginning of the 1980s, this was farmland; until its potential became obvious to Quentin David when he inherited the land, converting it to 15 hectares of some of the finest Sauvignon Blanc territory to be found anywhere..

Touraine

Domaine de Pierre, Lionel Gosseaume

If wine is in the blood, it seems you just can't fight it. Lionel Gosseaume resisted until the age of 37, before giving in to the inevitable and taking on this small estate on the Touraine/Sologne border, between the Loire and its tributary the Cher. That was in 2007, and the name Lionel gave to this 15-hectare collection of eight parcels of vines across four communes was Domaine de Pierre, after his late vigneron father. Indeed, the family vineyards where Lionel grew up lie nearby.

Domaine de Pierre's vineyards date back to the late 19th century, and in Lionel's hands the wines they produce have risen above the Touraine norm, including a Sauvignon Blanc to put many Sancerres to shame for its concentration and power. Meanwhile, his Gamay exhibits a precision and suppleness that would make many a Beaujolais producer envious. Lionel freely admits that it's a variety that could 'run rings around' him, but for a regime that combines heavy pruning with allowing the grass to grow between the rows, curbing the vine's natural vigour.

Muscadet

Jérémie Huchet

Sustainability and respect for terroir lie at the heart of Jérémie Huchet's winemaking practices. The winery spans four noted terroirs, each with individual traits that result in wines that are vastly different in some ways, but uniform in their level of quality. The whole winery has followed sustainable practices since 2001, and is well on its way to achieving organic certification; all the grapes produced are harvested from vines that have been entirely cultivated, ploughed and harvested through natural methods.

Saumur

Cave des Vignerons de Saumur

The Cave de Saumur is in the heart of the vineyards of Saumur-Champigny and was founded by local winegrowers in 1957. The Saumur Blanc La Cabriole is 100% Chenin Blanc and is best drunk young. The Cabriole red is 100% Cabernet Franc; harvested by hand in early October, the wine sees no wood and bottling usually takes place within six months of the vintage. There is also a very dry and refreshing Cabriole Rosé made from Cabernet Franc.

Saumur is famous for its wines but is also home to the world-renowned equestrian school - Le Cadre Noir De Saumur. La Cabriole is the classic dressage movement: elegance, harmony and lightness characterise this highly technical manoeuvre. Domaine Yves Cuilleron

Having trained as a mechanic, Yves got bitten by the wine bug in the 1980s. So when his uncle retired in 1987, Yves jumped at the chance to run the family estate. At the time, Condrieu was relatively unknown, and Yves’ perfectionist approach from vine-planting to wine bottling resulted in wines that were to grab the attention of both consumers and critics – making them hugely in-demand, and raising the profile of the appellation as a whole.

Gilles took over the running of this estate in 1996. With a history of winegrowing spanning four generations, his aim was to realise the potential of the then 25-year-old vines (52 years old in 2023). Using only natural fertilisers and reduced yields, he was able to develop a richer concentration of fruit and quality. A new winery was built into the ground to allow the wines to be moved delicately by gravity. Gilles’ first vintage was so good that he won a gold medal at the Mâcon Fair, and his reputation has grown ever since, with accolades from industry heavyweights Decanter, Wine International, Robert Parker and Wine Spectator, just to name a few.

Domaine de la Janasse

More than 40 years after Aime Sabon established Janasse at Courthezon, this iconoclastic young Turk of yesteryear is now established as one of the southern Rhone's finest wine estates, spanning more than 90 hectares of vineyards.

Now under the control of Christophe Sabon and his sister Isabelle, Janasse's much-lauded Chateauneuf-du-Papes are a quintessentially modern interpretation of the vineyards' superlative raw material: deep colour, excellent fruit, supple tannins and extraordinary richness.

But that shouldn't detract attention from the broader Janasse portfolio, including red and white Cotes du Rhone and a pair of fascinating IGP wines. The Viognier exhibits a fat, juicy style with lots of texture, while the Principaute d'Orange red owes its fruitcake character and distinctive tannins to the inclusion of Merlot planted just outside the Chateauneuf-du-Pape boundaries.

Domaine Chante Cigale

Domaine Chante Cigale is situated on the left bank of the Rhône, between Orange and Sorgues, on a variety of soils which contain a high proportion of 'galets.' These are the large stones of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, which heat up during the day and release their heat at night, allowing the grapes to achieve maximum ripeness. The red is powerful, with defined fruit characters and supple tannins. The white is fresh and attractive and an interesting alternative to ubiquitous Chardonnay.

Cellier des Princes is a cooperative of 240 growers, founded in 1924. Under the guidance of oenologist Phillipe Cambie, it now enjoys a reputation as Châteauneuf-du-Pape's leading cooperative. For the duration of their contract, growers must have to dedicate 100% of their crop to the cooperative. Grapes from individual growers are assessed and compared for ripeness and sugar levels before vinification, which takes place in temperature-controlled, stainless steel tanks. Wines are aged in cement tanks.

The broken crags of Les Dentelles de Montmirail form a dramatic, gap-toothed backdrop to some of the finest vineyards of Gigondas. Steeply terraced, low-yielding and back-breaking to work, they simply wouldn't be worth cultivating if they didn't produce great wine. Thankfully, in cuvées such as Laurent Brusset's Le Grand Montmirail and Les Hauts de Montmirail, these south-facing terraces prove all that trouble worthwhile. The presence of a decent amount of Mourvèdre in the Brusset vineyards also gives an understated power and backbone that goes beyond typical Gigondas.

Domaine de Montvac

The best way to find new gems in the Rhône Valley is to ask people in the region what they like to drink, and we were gladly given the name of Cécile Dusserre at Domaine de Montvac. Here, wine has been a woman's domain for the past three generations. In the vineyards, the emblematic Grenache grape is dominant and the terroir is the focus, with organic farming throughout the property. The cuvée Variation is a 100% Grenache made from 85-year-old vines.

Maison Sinnae

Maison Sinnae is the new brand identity of Laudun-Chusclan, which are two villages in the Southern Rhône, on the right bank of the Rhône river and close to Châteauneuf-du-Pape. With close to 250 growers, many of whom are young with a modern approach, they are also proud of their winemaking history dating back to Roman times. After a 12-year partnership, Laudun and Chusclan are now one. They chose to pay tribute to their history by naming their collaboration Sinnae. During the Roman Empire, the villages of Laudun and Chusclan belonged to the Romans and the site today is an archaeological site called Caesars' Camp, where Julius Caesar fell in love with the Goddess Cornelia Sinnae, in homage to this passionate relationship between both Romans. Sinnae is also certified 'Vignerons engagés', which is a French sustainable wine growing certification including the following guidelines: protection of the environment; a recycling scheme; a quality traceability scheme from the vine to the glass; ensuring producers are paid fairly; and support for local initiatives.

Previously overlooked for its reputation as a producer of underwhelming wines, today Provence continues to position itself at the helm of modern thinking and experimentation as the pioneer of dry, mineral-driven rosés with a characteristically light pink tint.

Boasting a winemaking history of over 2,600 years, Provence is the oldest wine-producing region in France, and the only place in the world with a research institute dedicated solely to the production of rosé and the improvement of the style which has made it so famous.

Château Léoube

Nestled in a coastal bay facing the Îles d'Or, the 560-hectare, Léoube estate lies in the heart of the Cap Bénat, the largest protected site in the Var (Provence) and a place of precious natural beauty. The 17th century château was acquired by Lord and Lady Bamford in 1997, a pioneering family driving positive sustainable change in the UK, marking a new beginning for Léoube. Under the guidance of head winemaker Romain Ott, fourth generation winemaker of the Ott dynasty, Léoube uses time-honoured artisanal methods and organic principles that work in harmony with the land and changing seasons to produce award-winning Provençal wines which reflect the unique and varied coastal terroir. .

Château Sainte Marguerite

The amiable and very talented Jean-Pierre Fayard has built up one of Provence's most dynamic and well-respected estates. He now owns 91 hectares of prime vineyard around the village of La Londe, much of which is Cru Classé rated, and all of which he tends using organic viticulture. The elegant, food-friendly rosés are made predominantly from Grenache, with differing proportions of Cinsault, Mourvèdre and Syrah.

Domaine Cazes

Emblematic French fortified wine estate Domaine Cazes is by far one of the most respected estates in Southern France. Founded by Michel Cazes in 1895, Domaine Cazes is located in Rivesaltes, in the heart of the Roussillon region - “The French Catalunya” - between the Pyrenees Mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. In 1997, 4th generation winemaker Emmanuel Cazes took over the estate from his father and initiated the organic and biodynamic conversion of all vineyards. Today, Domaine Cazes produces not only fortified wines such as Muscat de Rivesaltes, but has also acquired vineyards in different Roussillon appellations, including the recently created Clos des Paulilles in Collioure and Banyuls. Domaine Cazes is Europe's largest organic and biodynamic certified wine estate.

François Lurton

Son of André Lurton (Château La Louvière), François Lurton represents the 5th generation of the famous Bordeaux classified growths owners family, the Lurtons. With a very entrepreneurial spirit, François was one of the first of the family to make wines outside of Bordeaux. Today he owns and runs five different estates across the world: Languedoc-Roussillon with Mas Janeil, Spain, Portugal, Chile and Argentina. François Lurton also has a unique perspective on the world of winemaking with his brand Fumées Blanches, an exceptional range of French varietal wines..

Aubert & Mathieu

Aubert & Mathieu is the story of two friends, Anthony Aubert and Jean-Charles Mathieu, who met at school. A few years later, they met up for a drink: Anthony was already in the wine trade and Jean-Charles was in corporate banking. Realising they shared an ambition to make wines their own way, in 2016, they launched Aubert & Mathieu. The first vintage was released in March 2019 and very successful on Paris' trendy restaurant scene. The Aubert et Mathieu identity is based on producing niche wines from the best terroirs of Languedoc-Roussillon while highlighting the nuances and singularities of each appellation. The DNA of their wines shows the perfect mastery of freshness, balance and the search for complexity. Inspiration, carefree and a little fantasy led them on their way! Aubert & Mathieu is also completely carbon neutral.

Lake Thau, a key area for the cultivation of oysters and mussels, provides a perfect setting for the Belle Mare estate. The vineyard enjoys a Mediterranean climate with a prominent northerly wind, which helps maintain vineyard health and enables perfect ripening.

Cave de L’Ormarine

The white Picpoul variety is grown throughout southern France, but has gained a particularly strong reputation for quality in one specific area in the Languedoc – Pinet. This small appellation is situated halfway between Béziers and Montpellier, the vine’s tolerance to sandy soils making it a popular variety for the area’s coastal vineyards. Picpoul translates as ‘lip-stinger’, a name which gives a clue to the lip-smacking high acidity of this variety – the fresh, crisp wines produced from the grape are an ideal accompaniment for the oysters sourced from nearby Étang de Thau.

Corbières

Château du Vieux Parc

The Cuvée Tradition Corbières has a lovely blend of dark ripe fruits with a supple, ripe tannin structure, and a reassuringly traditional château label, making it a brilliantly fruit-driven but nevertheless food-friendly wine. We recently added the Vin de Pays ‘Les Amandiers’ (meaning almond trees) to the range. This blend of Merlot, Grenache and Syrah may not be varietally labelled but more than makes up for this with moreish spun-sugar Grenache richness allied with a ripe Merlot body, Syrah structure and unbeatable value.

Anything but Ordinaire

La Lande

La Lande provides an impressive but affordable range; one of the best value ranges in our list. The white made from Colombard and Ugni Blanc is grown in the relatively cool climate of the Comte Tolosan, producing a wonderfully crisp and aromatic wine. The red, made from a blend of Carignan and Grenache, is sourced from the warmer ‘Hérault’ region and is round and plummy with an attractive soft finish. Finally, the Cinsault rosé is fresh, light and eminently quaffable.

Enotria was founded in 1972 as a specialist Italian wine importer, supplying mainly Italian restaurants in London with wines from just a handful of suppliers. The range was limited, but there was an enormous passion for pioneering obscure indigenous Italian grape varieties and wines.

Over the years the range has increased exponentially and today we offer an incredible selection of products that covers practically all of Italy's main regions. One of our strengths is the immense flexibility of the range at different price points. We cover all the basics, but we also represent top producers in all the classic areas.

These days we continue to honour this heritage, but we also keep a close eye on the latest trends, and continue to refresh the range with interesting, eclectic and emerging producers.

Italy's share of sales volume accounts for 36% of all wine sales, the largest share of all countries and regions from our portfolio. The Emilia Romagna region flourished last year, claiming the second position for still wine sales volume in Italy, behind Sicily, and just edging ahead of Tuscany.

Catarratto is a 2022 success story as it became the third best-selling still grape variety, after not even featuring in the top 15 in 2021. While Garganega was prominent in 2019 and 2020, it has been less popular over the last couple of years.

The climate and soils of this area mean that there is a notable bias towards white wines, however the output is still vastly diverse.

Alongside Soave and Valpolicella, Pinot Grigio and the ever-popular Prosecco also hail from this region.

Valdobbiadene

Ruggeri

As Prosecco continues to enjoy its time in the sun with UK consumers, seeking out an authentic expression of this crowd-pleasing sparkling wine becomes all the more important – and ever more difficult. This is where Ruggeri enters the picture. Established by Giustino Bisol in 1950 and now run by his son, Paolo, and grandchildren Giustino and Isabella, this winery's collection of Proseccos – many bottled as top quality Prosecco di Valdobbiadene DOCG – are some of the finest examples coming out of the region.

Terre di Sant’ Alberto

Terre di Sant’Alberto consists of ten hectares of manually worked hillside vineyard in the heart of Valdobbiadene, overlooked by a small chapel dedicated to Saint Albert. One of the peculiarities of this chapel is that it used to house a “Sator Square” i.e. an ancient plaque on the wall with the Latin inscription:

O P E R A
R O T A S

This can be read backwards, rotated, and upside down, which is handy, because it is also printed just above the front labels. Nobody really knows what it means, but it is probably an early-Christian symbol relating to ploughing and farming, God and nature, which will probably make a lot of sense once you have finished the bottle.

Sartori

Back in the late 19th century, Pietro Sartori's trattoria was a bustling venue where Veronese merchants and industrialists would meet, do business, eat and, of course, drink. As a result of these comings and goings, Pietro needed to maintain ample supply of good Rosso Veronese, which led him to buying a vineyard in Negrar in 1898. It was here that the Sartori story began. Stretching the boundaries of Veronese wine, without sacrificing the grapes and local winemaking styles, these are bespoke wines for today's market.

Friuli-Venezia Giulia

Marco Felluga

The Felluga family has a rich history in the winemaking world, tracing their roots back to the 19th century in Istria. Over the years, successive generations of the family have migrated anti-clockwise around the peninsula, seeking out better wine markets. They first moved from Istria to the island of Grado, before moving further inland to Gradisca d’Isonzo.

The winery is situated on a beautiful hillside overlooking the Isonzo River, with vineyards covering over 100 hectares of land in the Collio and Colli Orientali del Friuli regions. The unique terroir of the area, with its limestone soils and maritime climate, provides ideal conditions for growing grape varieties such as Friulano, Ribolla Gialla, Pinot Grigio, and Sauvignon Blanc.

Today, Marco Felluga and his granddaughter Ilaria continue to carry on the family’s winemaking legacy in the Collio region. Their dedication to producing benchmark wines is evident in the exceptional quality of their products.

Russiz Superiore

Having established his eponymous winery in 1956, Marco Felluga then noticed a nearby estate called Russiz Superiore in 1967. He was captivated by its 700-years’ worth of history, and the incredible potential of the sites. The logo of Russiz Superiore is the double-headed eagle that was the emblem of the aristocratic Thurn-und-Taxis family that managed this estate for over seven centuries. These 50 hectares are on Italy’s border with Slovenia, in the municipality of Capriva del Friuli, and effectively represent the Cru tier wines of the Marco Felluga winery.

Giovanni Puiatti

An innovator in his own right, Vittorio Puiatti developed what is now Italy’s dominant winemaking technique for white wines, frequently called the “Metodo Puiatti.” Only 100%stainless steel is used during both the fermentation and ageing of the wines. The winery is the first cellar in Friuli to be constructed using only steel, concrete and glass, reflecting his motto of ‘Save a Tree, Drink Puiatti’ – in other words, no oak is used in any of the wines.

Vistorta

Owned and operated since 1980 by Count Brandino Brandolini d’Adda, Vistorta is a 500-acre estate located in western Friuli-Venezia Giulia. With impressive winemaking investments in Bordeaux, Brandino has acquired the know-how, and entrepreneurial mentality, which he applies to his 40 acres of vineyard planted almost exclusively with Merlot. Brandolini is determined to produce the best Merlot in Italy, and constantly researches the best clones and planting systems to achieve this dream.

A breathtakingly beautiful part of Italy known for the Nebbiolo grape, this region has much to offer, from Barbera to the mighty Barolo. Piemonte is also home to a culinary speciality: the elusive white truffle.

Every autumn, enthusiasts descend on Piemonte seeking the world’s finest truffles, and devise recipes to pair with the beautiful wine this region has to offer.

Piemonte

Azienda Agricola Negro

Azienda Agricola Negro is an entirely family affair; parents Giovanni and Marisa have recruited the help of sons Gabriele, Angelo and Giuseppe to run the 48 hectare vineyard and winery, while daughter Emanuela takes care of sales and marketing. The whole family is united in a single focus for their estate: to produce the best wines they can, from their collection of impressive vineyards.

Cantine Giacomo Ascheri

Founded in 1880 by Giacomo Ascheri, the winery has been passed down through generations of the Ascheri family and is now run by the charismatic Matteo Ascheri.

The winery owns vineyards in both the Barolo and Roero regions, allowing them to produce a diverse range of wines. They specialize in the production of Barolo wines, made from the Nebbiolo grape, which is renowned for its power, structure, and longevity. Cantine Giacomo Ascheri’s Barolo wines are a true reflection of the terroir, displaying the unique characteristics of the different vineyards and microclimates.

Cantine Volpi

Founded in Tortona in 1914, Cantine Volpi is still family-run, with fourth generation Carlo Volpi now at the helm. With a long winemaking history, the Tortonese hills sit at the meeting point of Lombardy, Emilia Romagna and Liguria, and there is evidence of wine production as far back as 1198 with a grape press found in the local monastery. The Barbera and Cortese wines in this range are a reflection of the climate and the unique characteristics of the Tortona region.

Conterno Fantino

Conterno Fantino stands at the summit of 21st century Barolo, both literally and figuratively. From its stunning winery atop the Monforte d’Alba hill, this alliance of the Fantino and Conterno families produces a range of wines that are both unmistakably modern, also utterly respectful of the region’s winegrowing heritage. That heritage is centred on vineyards that balance the need for Nebbiolo, with plantings of Barbera, Dolcetto, Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.

E. Pira

Since 1990, this jewel of Barolo has been run by the energetic and multi-talented Chiara Boschis. Her mission? To add an aromatically elegant edge to the legendary power of these great wines. She has added vineyards in Monforte to the original estate, but the heart of E. Pira remains as it was in the days of the late Luigi Pira – just 2.5 hectares of vines in Barolo’s prized enclaves of Cannubi, Cannubi San Lorenzo, and Via Nuova.

Fontanafredda

Founded in 1858 by King Vittorio Emanuele II as a gift to his mistress, Rosa Vercellana, Fontanafredda has since become one of the most renowned wineries in Italy. The estate covers over 250 acres of vineyards, with a focus on traditional Piedmontese grape varieties. In the capable hands of Oscar Farinetti, founder of the Eataly chain of Slow Food restaurants, the winery has found its true fame.

Over the years, Fontanafredda has been dedicated to producing high-quality wines that reflect the unique terroir of the Langhe region. From its signature Barolo wines to its elegant Barbaresco and Barbera d’Alba, Fontanafredda’s wines have won numerous awards and accolades for their quality and craftsmanship.

In addition to its wine production, Fontanafredda also offers a range of hospitality services, including a hotel, restaurant, and wine tasting experiences. The winery is committed to sustainable agriculture and has implemented a range of environmentally friendly practices, including the use of renewable energy and the reduction of chemical inputs..

Nicola Bergaglio

Organics are meaningless as far as the Bergaglios are concerned; what matter are the numbers of swallows which come back each year to enjoy the insects which thrive in their vineyards on the old and healthy Cortese plants. Consequently, what can be achieved through hard work is important, and getting hold of the family is difficult: in the first week of December they were cutting down chestnut trees on their estate; then they cut the timber into shape; then they took some other timber which had been seasoned in the open for over a year and they used it to replace stakes in their vineyard. The Gavi di Gavi, La Minaia, bears testament to this. ‘Minaia’ means ‘mine’ and mines mean minerals; lots of lemony minerals.

La Spinetta

The Rivetti family are farmers through and through. Giorgio Rivetti (who also owns the Contratto winery) is a force to be reckoned with in the region, and starred in the 2014 documentary ‘Barolo Boys’ about the group of winemakers who tore up the rule book for winemaking in the 1980s and 90s and reshaped the identity of Barolo through technical innovation. This uncompromising pursuit of excellence earned La Spinetta a worldwide reputation.

Their bold labels feature the rhinoceros and lion by Renaissance artist Albrecht Dürer. These powerful creatures evoke La Spinetta’s signature house style and philosophy, while also nodding to Dürer’s virtuosic reinvention of the woodcut medium.

Contratto

The Contratto cellars were carved into the limestone underneath the winery and the vineyards in the 1860s. The labyrinthine cellars are now recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site, while the winery is famous as a pioneer of non-Champagne sparkling wines. Their Moscato and Asti sparkling wines, made in the Champagne method, were incredibly popular worldwide at the beginning of the 20th century. These historic export agreements are the reason behind the “For England” label on the Blanc de Noir Pas Dosé to this day. Since the Rivetti family bought Contratto in 2011, they have employed their signature elan to take Contratto to new heights. They have invested in new vineyards, particularly focusing on high altitude plantings of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

Il Chiosso

In the dialect of Alto Piemonte, “il chiosso” refers to a vineyard that is enclosed by a stone wall, which demonstrates that the winemaker has identified the potential of this single site to create exceptional wines. That was precisely the mission of Marco Arlunno and Carlo Cambieri when they founded Il Chiosso in 2007. They both brought extensive winemaking experience in the region to the project: Marco as the producer of Ghemme, and Carlo as a vineyard owner and manager. In less than 15 years they have built up a reputation for Il Chiosso as one of the most compelling expressions of the Gattinara terroir, nurtured by a deeply traditional respect for nature.

We have selected two wines from Il Chiosso, which are Gattinara Galizja (their top cru) and Gattinara Riserva (which is only produced in exceptional vintages).

Rovellotti

The Rovellotti family has been making wine on a small scale in Alto Piemonte for over 600 years, handing down philosophies and techniques from one generation to the next. Over the years, they have modernised in line with developments in sustainability and technology. Rovellotti officially established its winery in 1972, coincidentally the same year that Enotria Winecellars was founded. The local council granted the family permission to locate their winery and cellar complex in the Ricetto Castle, around which lie the family’s 25 hectares of vines. In the last 50 years, this producer has set the bar for the Ghemme appellation.

With its beautiful architecture, intoxicating landscape and iconic wines, Tuscany continues to flourish as one of the most romantic regions in Italy.

Wines such as Chianti have been produced here for over six centuries, and producers combine tradition with modernity to produce some of Italy’s finest wines.

Maremma

Castellani

Since 1903, Castellani has been exporting its finest estate wines from Tuscany. Although the wines have changed and evolved over the decades, their philosophy has remained consistent, with a strong belief that the quality of the wine begins in the vineyards. So too has their primary aim and aspiration – to create memorable wines, reflective of the family’s passion, investment in research and new cellar technologies.

When Cantine Leonardo da Vinci was founded in the Chianti winegrowing village of Vinci, also the birthplace of the genius Leonardo, the winery covered just 70 hectares and 30 small winegrowers. Over the past 50 years, the cooperative has expanded to include 200 partners who cultivate 750 hectares in the Tuscan hillsides. Their approach to winemaking is to harmonise the new and old together, by blending centuries-old winemaking heritage with the most modern winemaking technique.

Casa Brancaia

Over Christmas of 1980, a Swiss family called the Widmers travelled to Tuscany and fell in love with a beautiful estate owned by an elderly English gentleman who was looking to sell. Incorporating what was historically two estates called Brancaia and Poppi, it is in the heart of Chianti Classico. The Widmers moved quickly and soon won their first award for the 1983 Chianti Classico. Their daughter, Barbara Widmer, took over as winemaker in 1998. This is also the year in which the Widmers acquire the Maremma estate, which is released as the Ilatraia in 2002, scoring 95 points in Wine International. Their top wine, Il Blu, quickly became a classic for Super-Tuscan fans around the world.

Montalcino

Fattoria dei Barbi

Founded in 1790 by the Colombini family, the winery has been producing some of the finest Brunello di Montalcino wines for over two centuries.

The winery's founder, Stefano Colombini, was a pioneer of modern winemaking techniques in Tuscany. He was one of the first to plant Sangiovese grapes in the Montalcino region and recognized the potential for the grapes to produce high-quality wines. His dedication and passion for winemaking has been passed down through seven generations of the Colombini family.

Today, with Stefano Cinelli Colombini serving as the CEO and winemaker,Fattoria dei Barbi is one of the most respected and renowned wineries in Italy. The winery's vineyards are spread over 300 hectares of land, and the grapes are hand-harvested to ensure the highest quality.

Fattoria dei Barbi continue to innovate and push the boundaries of winemaking, while staying true to its roots and traditions.

Il Poggione

High on its perch overlooking the lush Maremma, Tenuta Il Poggione has become synonymous with top quality Brunello for more than a century. Its dramatic scenery proved irresistible to Florentine landowner Lavinio Franceschi in the late 19th century, drawn to the area by the tales of a local shepherd whose sheep spent the summer months on the sunlit slopes between Montalcino and Sant'Angelo. Now in the capable hands of fifth-generation owners L & L Franceschi, Il Poggione has about 125 hectares of the finest Brunello vineyards going, and a 10-year-old winery that combines modern equipment with a traditional approach, not least in the large French oak barrels so vital to the development of its classic Brunello and Rosso di Montalcino.

Montepulciano

Poliziano

Since its foundation in 1961, Poliziano has swiftly established a reputation as one of the leading producers in the area surrounding the beautiful town of Montepulciano. The winert's story, taps into the history and culture of this picture-postcard corner of Tuscany. The name Poliziano is a tribute to the Renaissance humanist and poet Angelo Ambrogini,also known as Poliziano. His ‘nickname,’ Poliziano, is a simple reference to his birthplace – Montepulciano was originally Mons Politianus in Latin. And why Asinone? The vineyard gets its name from its shape, said to resemble the back of a mule.

Frescobaldi

Frescobaldi Winery's roots in winemaking date back to the 14th century, and their commitment to cultivating Tuscany's diversity is central to their philosophy and approach. With over 1,000 hectares of land and four main estates situated in some of the best sites in the region - Chianti Classico, Chianti Rufina, Maremma, and Montalcino - they have access to a diverse range of terroirs and grape varieties. By embracing the richness and complexity of the region, they are able to produce exceptional wines that reflect the unique character and traditions of Tuscany.

In addition to winemaking, the Frescobaldi family is also involved in other ventures, such as olive oil production and hospitality. As one of the most respected names in the industry, they are committed to preserving the heritage and culture of Tuscany, promoting sustainable viticulture, and supporting local communities..

Umbria

Arnaldo Caprai

Arnaldo Caprai, a successful textiles merchant, made a bold career change in 1971 when he purchased five hectares of land in Umbria that captivated his imagination. Over the next 17 years, he gradually acquired more vineyards until he passed the reins to his son, Marco Caprai, in 1988.

In the 1990s, Marco partnered with the University of Milan and invested heavily in advanced scientific and technological research. This led to the discovery of new clones of the Sagrantino grape, which is native to Umbria. As a result of this pioneering work, Caprai has become recognized as the preeminent producer of Sagrantino di Montefalco, made exclusively from 100% Sagrantino grapes.

Marco Caprai's passion for science and innovation continues to guide the winery's practices, including a rigorous approach to sustainability that involves detailed reporting on CO2 emissions and increasing biodiversity in the vineyards. Today, Arnaldo Caprai Winery stands as a shining example of how cutting-edge research and traditional winemaking techniques can work together to produce exceptional wines while preserving the environment for future generations.

Sometimes overlooked, central Italy is home to some of Italy’s most fertile agricultural land and its wines are some of the country’s most popular.

Crafting wines which are approachable, interesting and diverse, it is an area which experiments in the rediscovery of little-known indigenous grape varieties, as well as ongoing research and development to evolve wine styles and production techniques.

Marche

Fazi Battaglia & Tenute San Sisto

Fazi Battaglia takes pride in its association with a brand that inherently embodies the essence of pure Italian identity and culture. Founded in 1949 in a humble cellar, the winery dedicated decades to enhancing the vineyards and focusing on a single grape variety - Verdicchio. These forward-thinking decisions paved the way for Fazi Battaglia to become pioneers in the Marche region and the leading champions of Verdicchio in Italy.

Emilia Romagna

Cantina Cleto Chiarli

Modena – the home of Ferrari and Maserati, of Pavarotti and Acetico Balsamico – is also the home of Lambrusco. From the day in 1860 when Cleto Chiarli shut the doors of his Osteria dell'Artigliere to concentrate all his efforts on winemaking, the Chiarli name has been tied to this great – and much misunderstood – wine style. Chiarli's expertise in everything from wine quality to marketing – its innovative bottle, label and cork were much admired as long ago as 1900 – sparked a revolution in selling Lambrusco.

Bosco Nestore

Giovanni Bosco began growing vines in 1897 and then passed on the winery to his son Nestore. The wines had gained a local reputation for the intense perfume and spiced palate, but it was the recognition of the Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC in 1968 that propelled the international reputation of Bosco's wines. As the coveted slopes of Pescara became saturated with vineyards, the Bosco family expanded inland and focused their production on only the highest quality fruit. In the 1980s, the third and fourth generations of the family built a new winery In Nocciano. Wines are matured in a combination of large barrels of Slovenian oak, new barriques and in bottle.

Italy's 'boot' enjoys geographical and climatic diversity, from the mountains of Campania to the rocky shores of Puglia.

The styles of wine produced are as diverse as the topography: pure, aromatic whites from Avellino; the robust reds of Menfi; and the intense sweet wines of Noto. Sicily's mountainous terrain with lean soil, intense summer heat and scarce rainfall makes it ideal for viticulture, enjoying a hot ripening season tempered by elevated vineyards.

Basilicata

Donato D'Angelo

In 2001, the husband-and-wife team of Donato D'Angelo and Filomena Ruppi embarked on a new venture by acquiring 20 hectares of vineyards. Their goal was to produce consistently high-quality wines that would showcase the unique terroir of the region: Basilicata.

The vineyards, situated on the slopes of Mount Vulture, were primarily planted with the Aglianico grape, which makes up 80% of the vines. Additionally, they planted Cabernet Sauvignon and Fiano.

Antonio Caggiano

The Caggiano winery is based in the town of Taurasi, the heartland of Aglianico, which is the main focus of their production. Antonio Caggiano, the founder of the winery, designed one of the wineries himself - the most spectacular of its time in Campania. Today, thousands of bottles are laid down in its galleries - which are made of the local "tufo" stone - giving the sturdy Aglianico time to soften and develop the deep crimson hues and intense fruit flavours it's best known for.

Puglia

Boheme

Primitivo, a native varietal of Puglia, in the heel of Italy's boot, is derived from the Latin Primativus meaning 'early to ripen' - it's no surprise then that it's one of the first red grapes to be harvested in Southern Italy. Thanks to modern winemaking, this grape has been elevated from a humble quaffing wine to a delicious, jammy and moreish style, whose quality belies its price tag. A hugely popular red for casual dining lists.

Vigneti Vumbaca

The Vigneti Vumbaca company is based in Ciro (Calabria) and extends over an area of about 13 hectares, six of which are home to vineyards with spurred cordon and bush training systems, on partly hilly soils of medium sandy and calcareous clay; all organically run. Currently at the helm is Christian Vumbaca who, following 15 years in Rome - between university studies and work at a prestigious law firm - decided to return to his native land to dedicate his time to the company created by his mother Silvana and his uncle Enzo. The team is focused on caring for their vineyards, observing historic cultivation traditions and a commitment to the restoration of old vineyards planted using the Albarello training system (hence the choice of the company logo) and focusing on native Gaglioppo and Greco Bianco vines.

Serra Ferdinandea

Serra Ferdinandea is named after a volcanic island that suddenly emerged from the sea in the Strait of Sicily in July 1831 as a result of a series of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. Both the French and Sicilian navies immediately noticed this new island and fought fiercely over it for the next four months until it sank back under the sea surface just as suddenly as it had appeared. Almost two centuries later, the winery Serra Ferdinandea is a collaboration between the Sicilian Planeta family and the Oddos of Provence. The three wines in this wine are all blends of indigenous Sicilian varieties and classic French varieties, vinified through shared ideas and experience from these two great families. The collaboration between two families from Sicily and Provence is a wonderful expression of the knowledge sharing, supra-national zeitgeist.

Scirocco

Scirocco is a company born in 2015 with the main object of creating value for Sicilian Agriculture. From 2020 they are making a wine called Lucie, a biodynamic sparkling , vegan, organic and free from sulphites.

The product is what we called in Italy “con il fondo”, an unfiltered wine of opalescent aspect by keeping the fermentation yeasts inside the bottle.

Sardinia

Santadi

It sometimes helps to think of Sulcis, in south-western Sardinia, as Sardinia’s Yorkshire (but with better weather), a coal-mining region where the coal mines have been shut by government decree. For the people of Sulcis, alternative employment came either through migration – it’s said that if you look in any Italian restaurant kitchen in London you’ll find at least one Sardinian working there – or through grape-growing. Local producer Santadi is of the latter group, with the company’s dozens of growers producing wines prized throughout Italy for their suppleness and refinement. They don’t tend to promote this however – Sardinians are often unassuming and, by Italian standards, even introverted – but these Carignano and Vermentino wines are suffused with distinctive character, and are a perfectly pitched combination of warmth and freshness.

From the established heartlands of Rioja and Ribera del Duero to the rejuvenated regions of La Mancha and Jumilla, and from Catalunya in the East to Galicia in the West, our Spanish portfolio is a powerhouse of wines that are fierce in character and have a strong sense of place. Paired with a selection from sunny Mallorca and historic Jerez, it's a collection that's hard to beat.

Spanish wines are becoming more established, with continuous growth in sales volume over the last five years. The share of all Spanish wine sales in 2022 was double that of 2018, with Cava sales volume almost doubling in that time period. In the same vein, the share of rosé wine within Spain has doubled in the last five years and now accounts for 22% of wine sales volume.

The regions of Cariñena and Castilla-La Mancha have emerged in the last few years, while Navarra on the other hand has marginally declined in Spanish wine sales volumes.

Protected by both the Pyrenees and the Cordillera Cantábrica mountains, North Central Spain covers a vast area of land, with most vineyards sitting high up on the Meseta and illustrating high elevation viticulture at its very best.

Spicy reds from Rioja, powerful Tempranillo from Ribera del Duero and herbaceous Verdejo from Rueda remain firm favourites, while historical Navarra and quirkier Toro, where tradition meets innovation, offer a testament to new wave Spanish wine.

Rioja

Ramón Bilbao

Established in 1924 and based in Haro, Ramón Bilbao has 180 vineyards spread across Rioja. Today, it is the fastest growing winery in the region and has firmly established itself as one of Spain's most exciting and innovative producers. The jewel of the star-studded range is the Crianza, which holds the spot as the most popular Rioja Crianza in the Spanish on trade. Born and bred in the region, chief winemaker Rodolfo Bastida is a man who likes to push the boundaries and believes the future lies in trial and exploration.

Lalomba

Lalomba is a single vineyard collection by Ramón Bilbao, launched in 2020. The Lalomba winery is in Haro, adjacent to Ramón Bilbao, but has its own team, facilities and identity. Lalomba still carries the Ramón Bilbao DNA of research and experimentation, exemplified by the use of rough concrete fermentation vats, and rigorous selection of different sized barrels made from both French and Hungarian oak. This range captures the distinctive character of the complementary terroirs of Rioja with Finca Valhonta (on the terraces of Villalba de Rioja in Rioja Alta), and both Finca Ladero and Finca Lalinde (on the stark hillsides of the Sierra de Yerga in Rioja Oriental).

Sierra Cantabria

Nestled between the foot of the Sierra that gives the winery its name “Sierra Cantabria” at 1200m and the Ebro River at 350m, sits the town San Vicente de la Sonsierra, a town of great winemaking tradition. Sierra Cantabria is a much-lauded family-owned producer who crafts wines of freshness, elegance and poise. Six generations of obsessive attention to detail and deep respect for the land has earned them a loyal following.

Viñedos Sierra Cantabria

The Eguren family has been making outstanding Rioja since 1870, and the Viñedos Sierra Cantabria is their more contemporary brand. 19 carefully selected vineyards in Sonsierra and Alavesa across 65 hectares make the backbone of their estate, and back up the family's mantra that, "above all, we are grape growers". Today, brothers Marcos and Miguel implement the accrued knowledge of five generations of their family, and cut no corners in the vineyard. Grapes are hand-selected to account for microclimates at different altitudes (from the River Ebro at 350m to the Sierra Cantabria mountain range at 1,200m).

Señorio de San Vicente

A pioneer in Rioja, Senorio de San Vicente was the first single vineyard, single winery, single wine operation. Led by Marcos Eguren, one of Spain's greatest winemakers, the winery uses an elegant and nearly extinct variant of Tempranillo, called Tempranillo Peludo (Hairy Tempranillo). With the first vintage in 1992, Senorio de San Vicente moved to French oak in recent vintages for a more modern profile (90% French, 10% American), with the wine aged for 20 months.

Viñedos de Paganos

The only project of the Eguren brothers that hails from Rioja Alavesa, this winery has one goal, to reflect the perfect expression of tempranillo, in balance with the local soils, climate and viticultural practices. Often referred to as the most "burgundian" of the Sierra Cantabria offering, they give wines of complexity, balance and above all, finesse.

Cuentaviñas

One of Spain's most talked about wine projects, Cuentaviñas is the brainchild of winemaker extraordinaire, Eduardo Eguren. This is his very personal project to bring to life what is the epitome of a single parcel wine, from ancient vineyards he inherited from his maternal grand father. Incredibly sought after and incredibly limited, they are very much one of the new jewels of Spain and Rioja.

Vintae

In Vintae, we're proud to have a one-of-a-kind, revolutionary producer – restless, creative and sometimes rebellious, with projects in over 15 DOs. The heart of their winemaking heritage lies in Rioja, Bodega Classica, specifically in the historic village of San Vicente de la Sonsierra. The Riojan Sonsierra is an area located on the south side of the Cantabrian Mountain Range and the Toloño mountains, which protects it from cold winds and humidity.

Ribera del Duero

Pago de Carraovejas

The new top tier estate of Spain, the Alma Carraovejas group champion the best of different regions across the peninsula. From the classic Pago de Carraovejas in Ribera del Duero, to the cult Verdejos of Ossian in Nieva, to Galicia's stunning Emilio Rojo O Gran Mein they are pushing the quality of Spanish wines to new heights. Drawing on advice from legends including Rafael Palacios and Javier Ausas (of Vega Sicilia fame), the reins for Pago de Carraovejas have now passed to three formidable women: Patricia Benitez (Pingus/Vega Sicilia with two 100 point vintages), Almudena Calvo (Spain's top Winemaker 2019) and Laura Montero (Alvaro Palacios, Peter Sisseck). The trio is continually investing in improvements to maintain their reputation.

Milsetentayseis

Patricia Benitez draws on her extensive experience to create this innovative expression of Ribera del Duero from the boutique winery of Milsetentayseis. The name is a reference to the winery's vertigo-inducing altitude: at 1076 metres, this is new territory Ribera del Duero. The unique terroir of Fuentenebro encourages a refreshing take on Tino Fino with a focus on elegance and subtlety.

Pago de los Capellanes

Upheld as the rising star on the Spanish scene over the past few decades, the landscape of Ribera del Duero is actually suffused with centuries of wine heritage – from gnarled Tinto Fino vines of venerable age, to the labyrinthine wine cellars that wind beneath the old cobbled streets of Aranda de Duero. Pago de los Capellanes may have all the modern bells and whistles - a recently-expanded vineyard and stunning winery facilities - but their history is rich and long, dating back to the 14th century.

Cruz de Alba

Cruz de Alba is a boutique winery located in the ‘Golden Mile’ of the Ribera del Duero, in Quintanilla de Onésimo (Valladolid, Spain), which started its own wine production in 2003. A standard-bearer of the expression par excellence of viticulture, Cruz de Alba is also an example of passion for oenology, respect for the local environment and balance. Its origins can be found in the Los Hoyales vineyard, a terroir in the heart of the ‘Golden Mile’. The special characteristics of this plot are usually associated with fine, elegant wines, perfectly representative of the singular character of the vineyard, which has been consistently evident in its wines since production began. Cruz de Alba is made in small quantities using the best Tinto Fino grapes, cultivated using agrohomoepathic treatments according to the biodynamic calendar, and harvested carefully by hand. Cruz de Alba: born from nature.

Sardon de Duero

Abadía Retuerta

Abadía Retuerta was established near the village of Sardón de Duero in Castilla y León in 1996 with 210 hectares under vine. Each one of the 54 plots is planted with a single variety, best matched to the microclimate. Winemaker Pascal Delbeck (the owner of Château Ausone in Saint-Émilion) completely redesigned the winery around a gravity-flow system, so that grapes and wines would not need to be pumped around the facility. The 5,000 barrel capacity winery has been cut into the mountainside.

Navarra

Bodegas Chivite

J. Chivite Family Estates is an illustrious family with one of the longest histories of winemaking in Spain. When Julian Chivite Lopez inherited the now renowned estate, he acquired eleven generations of experience to go with it. Convinced that the wine's future lay in the quest for excellence, he introduced sweeping improvements and innovations throughout the winery. His dogged commitment to quality was reflected in the wines themselves, which today are a benchmark for innovative, prestigious Spanish products.

Jolaseta

The bodega, Principe de Viana, is based around the charming story of a crowned prince who was forced to fight for his right to the throne. Since this time, the title of Principe de Viana has become a symbol of tradition, continuity and innovation; one that the winery brandishes with great pride.

Toro

Teso la Monja

Following the sale of their Numanthia winery to LVMH, the Eguren brothers set to work on taking their learnings a step further to create what is Spain's most premium and iconic wine estate, Teso La Monja. Using a selection of ancient, ungrafted, pre-phylloxera vineyards they have crafted a concise range of red wines that showcase Tinta de Toro (Tempranillo) at its very best. Concentrated, yet elegant and with a purity of fruit like no other region of Spain, Toro's flagship producer should be on the radar for any serious sommelier wishing to add diversity to their Spanish red wine list.

Cariñena

Bodegas Care

Hailing from Cariñena DO, one of the three oldest denominacions in Spain, CARE's state-of-the-art winery produces great value wines with beautiful labels designed by local artist Enrique Torrijos. The grapes are sourced solely from their own vineyards, with four separate estates dating back to 1948, all of which are situated 15km from the winery and at high altitudes. The wines have great balance of fruit and oak due to a much shorter ageing time, with the Crianza spending only eight months in barrel. CARE wines are certified vegan.

Nieva

Ossian

The mission of the Ossian project is to demonstrate the unique terroir and soils of Nieva. Located within the Rueda DO, these wines are nonetheless declassified to reflect the divergence of their geology and microclimate from the appellation's norm. Drier and warmer, but with cooler nights, the grapes ripen to perfection in these ancient sandy soils which are home to vineyards of more than 200 years old. The top wine, Capitel stands apart for its unique composition with some of the few deposits of slate penetrating the grey sand to yield an incredible minerality not normally associated with the region. A truly Burgundian and nuanced expression of this typical Spanish variety.

Madrid

Bodega Marañones

Marañones was founded by Fernando Cornejo in 2008 as one of the true pioneers of the Gredos Garnacha movement. Sitting 80km west of Madrid, the region does not (yet!) have a formal appellation, and its identity is still being shaped by collaborations with talented winemakers, such as that with Fernando Garcia, who has since gone on to found cult winery, Comando G. Marañones. The winery was founded on twin commitments to minimal intervention and to sustainability, in a bid to preserve the mosaic of soil types, aspects and altitudes that are a winemaker's dream come true: in the winery, they favour larger vessels that allow the unadulterated, granitic character of the fruit to sing. When Fernando Cornejo announced his retirement, Alma Carraovejas bought the estate in 2020 and will continue to champion the sustainable mission.

Boasting a long and fascinating history of winemaking, Catalunya marries tradition and modernity, with artisanal winemakers crafting small parcels sitting comfortably alongside pioneering bodegas and co-operatives.

The birthplace of Cava, our portfolio reflects this with an exciting selection of fizz.

Priorat

Scala Dei

Linked to the arrival of Carthusian monks in the 11th century, who were responsible for spreading the cultivation of grapevines in the region, Scala Dei is Priorat's great historical winery and winemaking has taken place in various Scala Dei cellar estates for hundreds of years. Mainly Grenache, the grapes used to make the wines come from vineyards with an average age of 50 years.

Catalunya

Franck Massard

Crowned with the impressive title of the UK's best sommelier in 1996, Frenchman Franck Massard quickly forged an even more illustrious reputation as a winemaker. After falling in love with Catalunya – and Priorat in particular – he took the leap and branched out on his own. His are wines of character which have a story to tell, sourced from vineyards that often endure extremes of altitude, steep slopes and marginal growing conditions.

Vins Petxina - Celler 9+

Vins Petxina pride themselves on offering an honest, authentic taste of the Mediterranean; wines 'made by the Mediterranean sea.' Proximity to the sea allows temperatures to be more stable than the areas surrounding their vineyards, and the Vins Petxina team follow organic processes within the vineyards, emphasising the effect of the terroir upon the final products.

Gramona

Gramona leads the pack in terms of premium Cava production. Combining six generations of accrued family experience, Gramona represents integrity at every point in the production process. From indigenous grapes and biodynamic viticulture, to a minimum ageing period of 30 months, Gramona is uncompromising in its commitment to excellence.

This painstaking attention to detail has earned Gramona consistently high praise and scores from pundits, including a Platinum award in the 2020 Decanter World Wine Awards. Perhaps more impressively, Gramona is the only sparkling winemaker ever to win the overall top spot in Spain's prestigious La Guia Peñin wine guide.

Pere Ventura

Pere Ventura's prestigious Cava house was established in 1992, but draws on a sparkling wine heritage that extends deep into the past. In fact, it was Pere's great-grandfather who was responsible for the first Cava ever made by the classical method used in Champagne, and his grandfather and father continued to hone their technique in producing Cavas of distinction and poise.

Enjoying warmth and sunshine, this region is home to some truly exciting estates producing high quality, terrific value wines with a modern twist.

We have some exceptional wines, from La Mancha across to Jumilla, where terroir is brought to life through a combination of talented winemaking and respect for these frequently challenging environments.

Jumilla

Bodega Cerrón

The Cerdán family has managed this land since 1895, and the family portraits on the labels of all their wines are a nod to this family tradition. But when Juan José and Carlos Cerdán's parents made the decision to break away from the local cooperative, it gave them entirely new levels of creative control over expression of their high-quality Monastrell fruit. The family were early pioneers of organic practices, as they became the first certified organic vineyard in Jumilla in 1995, while still selling their fruit to their local cooperative. All wines are now micro-vinified from single vineyards, and each parcel is carefully matched to different types of oak or amphora ageing vessels. Their vineyards sit at the highest point of Jumilla at over 1,000m altitude, exposing them to extreme diurnal variation.

Alicante

Bodegas Monóvar

Bodegas Monóvar is one of Alicante's oldest wineries, and its flagship wine, Fondillón, has a history that stretches back over 500 years. It is a non-fortified, semi-sweet wine made in an oxidised style. In lieu of adding alcohol to fortify after fermentation, the wine is made from overripe Monastrell grapes from 80-year old vines. The wines are aged for 20 years in a priceless solera of 100-year old American oak barrels, that have been painstakingly collected by the Poveda family over the years. Today, Salvador Poveda is the winemaker, assisted by the legenday Raúl Pérez.

La Mancha

Bodegas Verum

Verum is one of the most exciting new names on the Spanish wine scene. Winemaker Elias Lopez is passionate about bringing back some of the lesser-known and almost extinct Spanish varietals. This is a single estate, organically cultivated, producing mono-varietals from classic and unusual grapes. Verum utilises some of the most ancient winemaking techniques paired with modern environmental philosophies.

Ramita

High up on the central plateau of the Iberian Peninsula, Castilla-La Mancha is the world's largest wine-producing region. Viña Albali make reduced alcohol wines with just 0.5% ABV. Packed with fresh fruit character and plenty of flavour, these are excellent examples of just how far technology and winemaking have progressed in the arena of low-alcohol wines. Increasing consumer interest in low-alcohol alternatives can now be met with options that don't compromise on flavour and provenance.

Also known as ‘Green Spain’, Galicia is a far cry from the hot, arid conditions often associated with Spain.

Instead, lush, foggy, and often wet climes prevail, providing perfect conditions for indigenous grapes Albariño, Treixadura and Godello, to thrive. Modern technology, specifically stainless-steel tanks introduced in the 1970s, have a lot to do with one of the most exciting products of Spanish winemaking: cool climate, mineral and elegant white wines from the north Atlantic coast.

Rias Baixas

Mar de Frades

Meaning ‘Sea of the Friars’ in Galician, Mar de Frades lies in the Arousa estuary, overlooking the Atlantic ocean. Proximity to cooling ocean breezes creates the characteristic freshness and aromatic intensity of the wines produced here, and the location is also reflected in the design of the winery; created to resemble a sailboat. Innovation is key at Mar de Frades, and their iconic blue bottle is designed to symbolise the modernity of Atlantic wines.

Bodegas Martín Códax

Bodegas Martín Códax is named after the medieval troubadour whose poetry is one of the oldest examples of Galician-Portuguese writing. His romantic poems are heavily imbued with coastal imagery, and today’s winemakers share this passion for sharing their culture. In 30 years, the cooperative has grown from 50 grapegrowers to over 300 families. They were integral to the recognition of the Rías Baixas DO in 1988, and have been setting the benchmark ever since.

Ribeiro

Viña Mein Emilio Rojo

Emilio Rojo is widely regarded as Galicia’s finest white wine. The 1.2 hectare vineyard is situated on the north-facing slope of Leiro in Ourense. The wine is a field blend of Treixadura, Loureiro, Lado, Godello, Caiño Blanco, Albariño and Torrontes grown on unique “sabrego” soils, which are meticulously maintained with organic viticultural practices. The Vina Mein wines come from the opposite side of the valley, from south-facing slopes barely a few kilometres away from Emilio Rojo. What these wines have in common is that all fruit is picked at optimum ripeness and fermented separately. At harvest, the winery is full of old oak, cement, glass and stainless steel vessels exploring the potential of microvinifications. This is artisanal winemaking at its finest.

Valdeorras

O Luar do Sil

After a 20-year tradition making red wines in Ribera del Duero with Pago de Los Capellanes, the natural restlessness of the Rodero Villa family carried them on to a new adventure in Valdeorras, Galicia. The name of the new estate, O Luar do Sil, means 'The Reflection of the Moon on the River Sil', alongside which, vineyards cloak the steep terrain of the rugged valley. This specific location was chosen because the land here is unique: the granite and slate soils, together with the microclimate, have created the ideal conditions for artisanal viticulture. The wines produced in the region using the indigenous Godello grape are subtle, mineral and fresh, with complexity to evolve over the years.

Bierzo

Bodegas Cuatro Pasos

In 2003, the team behind Bodegas Martín Códax identified this parcel of Mencía vineyards in Bierzo. The vineyards are spread across Corullón, Valtuille, Hornija and Otero. The slate-rich soils encourage the varietal characteristics to shine through, together with a concentration of older vines at higher altitudes. The result is that these Mencía wines are longer-lasting with assertive freshness.

Monterrei

Terras do Cigarron

In addition to their main presence in Rias Baixas, Bodegas Martín Códax owns a couple of vineyards in Monterrei, which is a hinterland DO in Galicia, on the Northern Spanish border with Portugal. These vineyards are across the valley floor and up to 700m altitude. The diversity of microclimates is compounded by the variety of terroirs, allowing for experimentation with the Godello grape. These wines have exceptional structure and body, together with delightful aromatic complexity.

Getariako Txakolina

Adur

The vineyards of Txakoli occupy the north-west corner of the Spanish Basque Country. Hugging the Atlantic coastline in Getaria - the smallest region to produce this unique wine - is where Bordeaux-trained couple Maitena Barrero and Hector Gómez chose to set up and create their wine, Adur Txakolina. They work the vines to produce small yields - only 8000 bottles a year - to concentrate the Hondarribi Zuri grape in order to extract an intensity of aromas. It's a Txakoli with poise, weight and an insatiable salty tang.

Formerly overlooked and misunderstood as a tipple solely for older generations, sherry is experiencing a renaissance, with the popularity of dry styles soaring.

Our buyers have curated an exciting range of bottles from both powerhouse and smaller producers.

Jerez

Bodegas Alonso

Brothers Fernando and Francisco Asencio set about rescuing some of Jerez’s soon to be lost soleras. Bodegas Alonso, with the ancient soleras of Pedro Romero, Gaspar Florido and Fernando Mendez, is home to some exquisite sherries that are among the best in the world. All single barrel bottlings, there is a selection to choose from including Manzanilla, Amontillado, Oloroso and some spectacular Palo Cortados.

Xeco

Often overlooked and misunderstood as a tipple for older generations, sherry is in the midst of a renaissance thanks to its soaring popularity among hipsters. With a mission to make sherry accessible again, XECO is the brain-child of three 30-something Fino fiends who have set out to put a contemporary edge on an age-old product. To do so, they’ve joined forces with a magnificent Spanish sherry house that has been producing wines since 1876. Their flagship Fino is an utterly modern, refreshing introduction to the fortified wine, delicious served straight up or over ice with tonic or lemonade.

Bodegas Baron

The story of Bodegas Barón began in 1895 when Manuel Barón Fernández acquired a collection of old soleras in Sanlúcar de Barrameda in the southern Spanish region of Andalusia. More than 100 years later, they may be one of the oldest bodegas in the region, but they’re still steadfastly committed to quality and innovation. The family-owned estate has invested in the future of sustainable development, and uses environmentally friendly products to guarantee quality across their portfolio. In 2014 Bodegas Barón embarked on a makeover of their entire range, and now with new avant-garde labels, they’ve set themselves on a trajectory of modernisation that will set them apart from their peers.

Bella Luna (Sanchez Romate)

Sherry has officially slipped off its “grandma slippers and housecoat” image, and the Bella Luna trio are perfectly poised to capitalise on that, paving the way for the modern sherry drinker. The wines are sourced from the extremely reputable Bodegas Sánchez Romate, one of the few remaining wineries in the Jerez DO which is still in the hands of local owners. For over 200 years, the firm has witnessed rare privileges: in 1909 they were appointed as Official Purveyors to the House of Lords, and shortly afterwards as Official Purveyors to the Sacred Apostolic Palace of the Vatican.

Harveys

Harveys was founded in Bristol in 1796 by merchant William Perry. Initially, the company imported a range of foreign wines, one of which was sherry. At the time, sherry was imported in oak casks, and subsequently blended and bottled in the UK. During the 19th century, Harveys became one of the largest importers of sherry from the Bay of Cadiz to the port of Bristol and remains one of the biggest international names in the category.

Tio Pepe

In 1835 in Jerez, Spain, Manuel Maria Gonzalez, an ambitious 23 year old, set up the company that was ultimately to become Gonzalez Byass. Manuel was mentored in this by his uncle, José Ángel y Vargas, (affectionately known as Pepe), already a renowned authority on sherry and its production. Manuel gave his first cellar to his uncle so that he could continue his passion and make a sherry to his taste, which was at that time, not the norm. Later, Manuel sent a couple of barrels of his uncle's new, dry wine over to his London agent, one Robert Byass. The beautifully dry taste of José Angel's wine proved a great success and in 1849 Manuel named what is now the world's best-selling Fino after its creator, (tio being Spanish for uncle) – Tio Pepe.

Portugal is a treasure trove of wonderfully expressive table wines made from distinctive indigenous grape varieties, grown in all regions of the country from North to South. Quality table wine imports to the UK have increased by approximately 55% since 2017, showing the growing appetite for what the country has to offer beyond the classics of Port and Madeira.

There has been a trade-off in Portuguese red and white wine sales volume in recent years, with proportions of red wine declining, and white wine increasing; this has resulted in white wine accounting for 52% of Portuguese wine sales volume. Wines from Vinho Verde have grown in popularity over the last few years, as have wines from Lisboa, while Douro's share of sales volume has fallen.

Douro

Quinta do Crasto

Even among the breathtakingly beautiful and historic terraced vineyards of the Douro Valley, Quinta do Crasto is special. The estate celebrated its 400th birthday in 2015, and a demarcation stone marks its inclusion in the first geographical classification of the region's vineyards in the 18th century. Owned by the Roquette family, Crasto is comprised of 70 hectares of vines that cling precariously to their schistous perch above the river plus 114 hectares deep in the Douro Superior.

Port and Madeira

Taylor's

For many, Taylor's is the archetypal Port house and its wines the quintessential Ports. Established over three centuries ago in 1692, Taylor's is one of the oldest of the founding Port houses. It is dedicated entirely to the production of Port wine and in particular to its finest styles. Above all, Taylor's is regarded as the benchmark for Vintage Port. Noted for their elegance and poise as well as for their restrained power and longevity, Taylor's Vintage Ports are blended from the finest wines of the firm's own quintas or estates, Vargellas, Terra Feita and Junco.

The story of two families across three centuries. For almost two hundred years W & J Graham's has been an independent family business renowned for producing the finest Port wines. It was one of the first Port companies to invest in its own vineyards in Portugal's Douro Valley in 1890, and is now at the cutting edge of innovation in winemaking techniques. Today, five Symington cousins share responsibility for every aspect of the company and personally make the Graham's wines. Fonseca

From the legendary 1840, Fonseca's first Vintage Port release, to the superb declared vintages of the last decade, the house has produced a succession of highly acclaimed wines even in the most adverse moments of history. This consistency derives not only from continuity of family involvement, and the knowledge and skill passed down from one generation to the next, but also a close link with the vineyard. The firm's three estates of Cruzeiro, Panascal and Santo António are the heart of the distinctive character of Fonseca's Vintage Ports.

When you think of European wine, Italy and France immediately spring to mind, but it's in the heartland of continental Europe that some of the most exciting bottles can be discovered.

Typically harsh winters, combined with summers that are warm and sunny, provide perfect conditions for an exciting array of flavours. It's little surprise, then, that Germany, Austria and Hungary are home to some of the most historic wine styles and producers in the world. Offering legendary sweet wines, piercing, mineral scented whites, and increasingly impressive reds, the price to quality ratio remains notably attractive.

Riesling continues to dominate the grape varieties in Germany, but there has been an uplift to Pinot Noir's share of sales volume. Whereas in Austria, the stronghold of white wine continues to grow, with 90% of sales volume attributed to white wine, vs 10% for red wine. In Hungary, Furmint remains the dominant grape, but black varietals, Cabernet Franc and Blafränkisch, have gained recognition over the last couple of years.

With evidence that vineyards were planted in Germany more than 1,000 years ago, this is a country whose winemaking heritage is beyond question.

Rieslings from the historic and majestic Rheingau region are pure yet powerful, whilst few wine regions encapsulate terroir in a more expressive and evocative fashion than the Mosel. Germany is also home to the world’s third largest plantings of Pinot Noir (known as Spätburgunder) which is creating complex, terroir-driven red wines in the reliably warm summers of the Pfalz.

Rheingau

Weingut Leitz

With a unique selection of Rieslings, including a non-alcoholic offering, Weingut Leitz is located in Rüdesheim, at the western end of the Rheingau. This family estate is run by Johannes Leitz, who took over what was then a 2.6-hectare property from his mother in 1985, aged just 21. In 2011, he was named “Winemaker of the Year” by Gault Millau, Germany’s principal wine guide.

On the banks of the Mosel River, in the town of Kesten, lies a small, family-owned producer oozing with history. Records suggest the St-Paulin estate was involved in vine growing as early as AD 936. Named as the top site in the Mosel in Napoleon's 1804 classification, the famed Brauneberger Juffer vineyard also has religious overtones: 'Juffer' means 'maidens' in the local Moselle dialect and, reputedly, the original vineyard was planted by an industrious trio of nuns. Weingut Knipser

Renowned as one of Germany's finest winemakers, the Knipser family hails from the Italian Südtirol, and have been farming in the Pfalz since 1876. Brothers Werner and Volker Knipser were pioneering in their focus on red winemaking, winning Germany's first ever red wine competition in 1987. Werner's children Stephan and Sabine are now deeply involved: tasting from barrel with Stephan is to experience pure joy as he fills your glass whilst cracking jokes. Though famed for their stellar Pinot Noir (Spätburgunder), which is always released with several years of bottle age, their Rieslings also gain plaudits for their combination of Pfalz sunshine and nervy tension. They are a VDP member and farm around 80 hectares of vines in Laumersheim, Grosskarlbach and Dirmstein.

Grüner Veltliner – Austria’s signature grape – has finally gained the recognition it deserves as producing wines suitable for any quality list.

The Wachau, with its steep terraces, marries minerality with opulence, whilst the softer hills of the Weinviertel impart a fruit-forward and joyous expression. But Austria’s strength is also in its diversity: reds made from Zweigelt burst with cherry flavours, while adventurous producers are at the forefront of the natural wine movement.

Wachau

Erich Machherndl

Weingut Machherndl, an 18 acre estate established in 1786, is run by eighth generation owner, Erich Machherndl, who believes in honest viticulture without compromise. His philosophy is simple; keep focused on tradition, believe in the vines – especially the 100-year-old vines – and do not become distracted by the status symbols of modern viticulture. His first goal is to produce exquisite wines that can be enjoyed and admired for many years.

Weinviertel

Pfaffl

R&A Pfaffl was founded in 1978 by Roman Pfaffl and his wife Adelheid. Located just north of Vienna in the Weinviertel, Austria’s premier winegrowing region, the winery was originally a working farm with less than two acres under vine. Over the years the winery has expanded and now encompasses more than 200 acres of sustainably farmed vineyards, planted with indigenous Austrian varieties including Grüner Veltliner and Zweigelt. In their short existence, not only have the Pfaffl wines been recognised for their excellence with international accolades, but the family too has been praised for helping to bring the world’s attention to Austria’s wine scene and their indigenous varieties.

Famous for the unparalleled dessert wines of Tokaj, Hungary has been making strides in the quality of its dry wines. The indigenous Furmint grape gives complex, lightly aromatic and age-worthy white wines made in a variety of styles. Deeper south, in the warm region of Villány, sumptuous red wines are made from Cabernet Franc and the unique Kadarka grape varieties.

Tokaji

Patricius

While Tokaji is on the same latitude as the cool-climate Chablis region in France, the central European location of this Hungarian region means it enjoys a much warmer climate. It's because of this, along with the influence of the Tisza and Bodrog rivers, that results in the perfect conditions for noble rot. Patricius came to be after Hungarian exile, Desző Kékessy, returned to Tokaji and acquired 150 hectares of vineyard after building a successful business in Switzerland. The attention to detail at Patricius is breathtaking: re-planting and even re-orienting rows of vines where necessary, and upholding admirable standards of perfection in both their vine-growing and winemaking endeavours. This dedication and passion pays off in spades, with wines that display exquisite elegance and class, complex fruit and honey flavours, minerality and rapier-like acidity.

Sauska

Christian and Andrea Sauska have been crafting highly admired Hungarian wines for nearly 20 years. In the famous Tokaji region they make exceptional dry white wines from both local and international grape varieties, as well as classic sweet aszú and late harvest wines. Traditional method sparkling wines are also made under the expert eye of Régis Camus of Rare Champagne, with a dedicated new cellar being constructed in Budapest. The second winery is in Villány, near Christian's hometown in the deep south on the border with Croatia. This winery produces red and rosé wines, and is home to a world-class restaurant. The family's relentless drive towards quality includes practising organic viticulture (non-certified) and employing biodynamic practises in the vineyard. The Sauska family are pushing the boundaries of quality wine in Hungary, proving its potential as a prime destination for fine wine lovers.

England's impressive output – especially in its production of sparkling – has proved that it can hold its own on the world stage. From the chalky Sussex Downs to the picturesque counties of Devon and Cornwall, new vineyards continue to be planted, and additional international renown comes with almost every tasting competition.

Sparkling wine from England has been emerging in the last few years, albeit only making up a very small proportion of all sparkling sales volume. While red wine made up 20% of English wine sales volume at the start of the decade, this fell to 11% last year, while white wine grew to 80%.

Sussex has grown in importance for English wines, with sales volume from this region having tripled in the last three years. Chardonnay has seen a rise in popularity recently, accounting for over 50% of English sales volume.

Hampshire

Hattingley Valley

From its birth as a farm diversification project back in 2008, family-owned Hattingley Valley is today recognised as one of the leading producers of English wines. Located in the heart of rural Hampshire, they now farm some 24 hectares of vines across two separate sites and their custom-built eco-friendly winery was the first in the UK to adopt solar power. The traditional method is integral to making their exceptional sparkling wines and they owe their unique style to the use of barrel ageing, as well as extensive ageing on lees. This has led them to win much international acclaim and a multitude of awards ever since the launch of their first wines in 2013.

Sussex

Court Garden

Court Garden is a family-run, single-estate vineyard and winery in East Sussex, set on a beautiful south-facing slope with the South Downs as a backdrop. We are passionate about the grapes we grow and the wine we make. In recent years, that passion has been rewarded with numerous national and international awards; this year we are the proud winners of, among others, four silvers and a silver outstanding at the International Wine & Spirit Competition, three silvers at the Decanter World Wine Awards, two silvers at Effervescents du Monde in Dijon, two golds at the 2015 International Wine Challenge, plus their Trophies for Best English Sparkling and Best English Vintage for our 2010 Blanc de Blancs, and three silvers and a bronze in the 2016 International Wine Challenge

Devon

Lyme Bay

With an increasing demand for premium quality English wines, our buying team set out to source a producer with a range of wines with provenance we could be proud of. Which is where Lyme Bay Winery comes into the picture. Everything the Devon-based producer does is inspired by tradition, however it's not afraid to push the envelope and make the most of modern production techniques. These award-winning wines are fruit-forward and pure, with quintessentially English flavours.

First producing wine long before France and Italy, Greece and Lebanon are offering a fresh mix of indigenous varietals that provide exciting alternatives to the norm.

Greek white wine has grown in prominence, particularly in the last year, making up 82% of the wine sales volume. Helping to drive white wine is Assyrtiko – sales volume of this grape has doubled since 2020.

In Lebanon, red wine holds dominance and accounts for around three quarters of sales volume, while white wine accounts for the remaining 25%. The proportion of white wine sales increased in 2022, driven by the grape variety Obaideh.

With a history of over 6,500 years of winemaking, Greece has gone from an overlooked wine-producing country to one of the most exciting choices in the UK drinks industry. The superstar Assyrtiko grape makes highly complex mineral-driven wines in the dramatic volcanic landscape of Santorini – one of the world’s great white wines. The mountainous terroir of the north is expressed through the red Xinomavro grape, providing food-friendly and age-worthy wines.

Macedonia

Ktima Kir-Yianni

Kir-Yianni was founded in 1997 by Yiannis Boutaris, one of the leading figures in the Greek wine industry, when he left the Boutari Wine Group, the premium family wine company that his grandfather established in 1879. Today Stelios Boutaris, member of the fifth generation of winemakers, leads Kir-Yianni into the next phase of its history by dynamically exploiting the cornerstones of the Kir-Yianni philosophy: desire for innovation, respect for tradition and true knowledge of the wine, from the grape to the end consumer.

Santorini

Domaine Sigalas

Founded in 1991 by pioneering winemaker Paris Sigalas, Domaine Sigalas is widely regarded as one of Greece's finest wine producers. Key to the domaine's success is their use of native varietals to celebrate the unique terroir, establishing single vineyard expressions. Their winery is nestled between vines on the scenic plain of Oia, in the Northern part of Santorini. Today Domaine Sigalas comprises about 50ha of vineyards, all over 60 years of age planted on volcanic soils. These vineyards are either owned by the estate, leased or tended to in cooperation with local grape growers who they have worked closely with for decades. All vineyards are cultivated in a sustainable manner and only the very best grapes are hand selected to go into Sigalas' wines.

As visitors to the Roman temple of Bacchus in Baalbek will tell you, wine has been important to people here since ancient times. Settlers have also shaped recent winemaking history, with French grape varieties dominant, including Cinsault, Carignan, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. Altitude is key: with vineyards commonly planted at 1000m, the heat is tempered, and harvests are typically later than some parts of the Languedoc.

Batroun

Ixsir

Al-Iksir, meaning Elixir, is the purest form of all substances, a secret potion that grants eternal youth and love. Ixsir was therefore chosen as a fitting name for a new project established by a group of friends who share the desire of creating the finest wines Lebanon has to offer, and have been willing to spare no expense in realising their dream. Grapes are selected from the best terroirs throughout Lebanon, sponsoring sustainable development within growers' communities.

The diversity of this vast country’s exciting winegrowing areas has long been championed as one of the keys to premium Australian wine. Regions such as the Mornington Peninsula and Adelaide Hills are increasingly turning heads with their cool climate wines, while more established names such as the Barossa Valley, Eden Valley and Coonawarra are reaching new heights of excellence, as both vineyards and winemaking techniques excel.

Australian white wine has overtaken red since the start of the decade, accounting for 57% of Australia’s wine sales volume in 2022. This trade-off is a blend of increased success for Chardonnay and Viognier and the fact that Shiraz no longer holds the top spot for most popular grape variety. McLaren Vale’s importance became cemented a few years ago, with strong growth since the start of decade, now accounting for 20% of the wine sales volume from Australia.

The huge diversity in both geography and climate means that South Australia can produce a vast range of styles.

Offering distinctive Rieslings from the cooler climes of the Eden and Clare Valleys, Shiraz with power and elegance from the Barossa Valley, formidable Cabernet Sauvignon from Coonawarra, and flinty Sauvignon Blanc from Adelaide Hills, this is the heartland of Australia’s wine country.

Barossa

Teusner Wines

When winemaker Kym Teusner overheard Barossa grape growers lamenting that they would have to rip out a plot of 85-year-old Grenache vines because they couldn't find a buyer to stump up the asking price, he knew he had to step in. At the time, he was still the winemaker at Torbreck, but he approached his brother-in-law, Michael Page, with a proposition to save as many of these vines as they could afford. The pair went into business, and produced their first vintage of The Joshua, a GSM blend, in 2002. The pair have gone from strength to strength, forging a reputation for working with Barossa growers to source old-vine fruit for elegant and complex wines.

In 2020, Teusner merged with Spanish-owned grower Terramoll, who have been investing in Barossa vines for over 20 years. This move gives Teusner access to 120 hectares of prime Barossa vines.

Chaffey Bros. Wine Co.

This is the exciting new face of winemaking in Australia. Established in 2008 by brothers-in-law Daniel Chaffey Hartwig and Theo Engela, Chaffey Bros champion Riesling, Shiraz and Grenache from Eden and Barossa Valleys. Working in the realm of minimal intervention, artisan, small-batch wines, the pair prioritise experimentation and quality. Dan and Theo share a love for the sometimes brutal, remote landscapes of Barossa and Eden Valleys, which also boast a rich tapestry of passionate communities.

Clare Valley

Pikes

Pikes is best known for their Riesling range, capitalising on the cool climate of the Clare Valley. The Traditionale Riesling is the biggest selling premium Riesling in the domestic market, and their no-frills, democratic approach to quality wine has stirred up a firm fan base. With Jamie Pike now at the helm, Pikes stands for family values backed up by a non-pretentious approach. Pikes are heavily involved in the Riesling Riot tastings across Australia, that have been shedding light on this undervalued and undersold grape variety.

Adelaide Hills

Silver Lining Wine Co.

Legendary winemaker Marty Edwards left the family business, The Lane Vineyard, when he was diagnosed with Parkinson's in 2012. Determined not to be defined by this condition, Marty underwent a cutting-edge Deep Brain Stimulation operation in 2018. Despite the challenges he faces, Marty couldn't shake off his love of wine, so he created a new winery, "Silver Lining" and declared the first vintage in 2020. Part of the profits from sales of these wines will be donated to Parkinson's Disease research in Australia, making the story and purpose behind these wines every bit as captivating as their quality.

Coonawarra

Wynns

In 1891, Scottish pioneer began planting vines in this corner of Coonawarra, but it was only in 1951 that Melbourne-based wine merchants, Samuel and David Wynn bought and consolidated the vineyards, and established the Wynns estate. This estate was instrumental to the history of this region, now famed for its distinctive terra rossa, which is uniquely well-suited to Cabernet Sauvignon. With winemaker Sue Hodder at the helm for over 30 years, the estate has seen remarkable stability, enabling the delivery of long-term vision to rejuvenate the vines and reconstruct the vineyards.

Home to some of mainland Australia's coolest vineyards, Victoria is synonymous with pure expressions of classic varieties.

With a hugely diverse geology, from the ancient granite boulders of the Strathbogie Ranges, to the rugged mountain ranges of the Grampians, via the wind and sea-battered Mornington Peninsula, this is Australian wine at its most dramatic.

Strathbogie Ranges

Fowles Wine

When a company calls one of its wines ‘Ladies Who Shoot Their Lunch,’ you know you’re experiencing a wine story that’s just a bit, well, different. Matt Fowles – self-taught hunter, chef, winemaker and jazz trumpet player – was an unfulfilled lawyer before buying a winery out of administration and creating Fowles Wine. Food-friendly wines are Fowles’ focus, with their products specifically designed to be consumed with game.

Mornington Peninsula

Kooyong

The pastoral charms of the Mornington Peninsula form a backdrop for Kooyong's vineyard, split into five parcels, a number of clones and a variety of soils. It is this commitment to single vineyards and individual terroir, that lies at the heart of everything the estate does. Newly-appointed Chief Winemaker Tim Perrin respects and nurtures the inherent character of each of the gently undulating vineyard sites, with different parts of the vineyard made up from differing percentages of sand, loam and clay soils. It is these distinctions which influence the flavours of the single vineyard wines from each site.

Yarra Valley

Rob Dolan

Rob Dolan grew up in Riverland South Australia with the family nickname, 'Riesling' because he loved enjoying a glass of wine with his mother. For a long while, wine was a passion as Rob pursued a career in Aussie Rules Football. Then with two premierships to his name, Rob hung up the boots and moved to Hunter Valley to earn his stripes as a winemaker. Moving to Yarra Ridge in the 1990s, Rob was inextricably linked to establishing the region's reputation with two highly successful brands, Sticks and Punt Road. This pioneering Midas touch earned him the new nickname 'Mr Yarra Ridge', reinforced by the accolade of James Halliday's 'Newcomer of the Year Award 2014'. Rob believes that the best wines are dependent on the best fruit, and has built relationships with the region's best growers to become a specialist in cool-climate Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Cabernet Sauvignon. Partnering with growers has also give Rob the flexibility to experiment with parcels of less typical varietals like Marsanne, Arneis, Sangiovese, Tempranillo and Barbera. No matter the grape, Rob's wines have a distinctively "less is more" approach.

King Valley

Brown Brothers

One of Australia's first families of wine, Brown Brothers have been hand crafting wines since 1889. Their roots are firmly in Milawa in the King Valley in North-west Victoria. Over the last few decades, they have forged a reputation as innovators and trailblazers, pioneering uncommon and novel grape varieties. Fourth generation Katherine Brown, now leads the winemaking team and continues the legacy.

Pizzini Wines

Pizzini is a family-owned winery in the King Valley wine region in northeast Victoria, a region home to many Italian families. Alfredo and Katrina Pizzini's winemaking dream began in 1978 when they planted their first vines, initially selling grapes to other wine companies and then releasing wines under their own label in 1994. With a commitment to Pizzini's Italian heritage, they have a real focus on Italian varieties including Pinot Grigio, Verduzzo, Lambrusco, Nebbiolo and Sangiovese. A truly family run business, with their four adult children all working in the business alongside Alfredo and Katrina, they continue to ensure their business focuses on their four loves – wine, food, family and friends. A little slice of Italian in Australia.

Lying on the continent’s east coast, New South Wales is Australia’s second largest wine producing region and home to a variety of winemaking communities, each representing a diversity of unique terroirs and climates.

Whilst the most notable region in the state is Hunter Valley, New South Wales is full of undiscovered wine regions such as Orange. This unique and up-and-coming wine region is located 3.5 hours West of Sydney, with vineyards up to 1300m in altitude that are capable of producing world-class cool-climate wines. The warm and humid climate of the region is unique in Australian wine, allowing producers to offer iconic wine styles including delicate Semillon and earthy Shiraz.

New South Wales

Pure Wine Company

Duxton Vineyards is based in the Southern Murray-Darling Basin which lies just inland behind Melbourne and Canberra, stretching across the New South Wales-South Australia border to Adelaide. The Murray-Darling Basin is recognised as one of the most fertile regions in Australia, producing a number of high-value crops alongside grapes, such as citrus fruit, nuts, stone fruits and cereals. Duxton Vineyards’ wines are estate-produced, following a modern approach to viticulture and heavily influenced by respect for the environment. These are uncomplicated, lovingly made, great value wines.

McWilliams

Few have helped shape the evolution of the Australian wine industry like McWilliam’s Wines. From humble beginnings on the outskirts of Corowa in 1877, the philosophy of putting quality fruit first has ensured that McWilliam’s continues to be one of Australia’s most popular, respected and iconic wineries. With six generations of winemakers and more than 140 years’ experience, theirs are wines that tell the story of a family’s long love affair with their craft.

Orange

Mayfield Vineyard

The Mayfield estate was originally granted to explorer William Charles Wentworth as a thank you gift from the Governor of New South Wales. The land was used for livestock until the Thomas family first planted vines in 1999. This is one of the highest vineyards in Orange, between 880-970m, which makes it well-suited to the cool climate varieties the Thomases planted: Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Sauvignon Blanc and Riesling. The Eastham family bought the 91 hectares of Mayfield in 2021, and soon after brought in award-winning viticulturist, Charles Simons. Simons is known for his data-driven, minimal intervention vineyard management. He says, "The ethos of the viticulturist is that the more footsteps, as opposed to tractor tracks, in the vineyard the better. Some of our premium vines will be touched by a human five to six times per year. We aim to do the right thing once, at the right time.

Technology helps us achieve this."In the Easthams' first vintage, the Sophie's Godmother Sauvignon Blanc was featured in Matthew Jukes 100 Best Australian Wines 2022, suggesting this small winery is destined for great things.

While Western Australia is the country's largest region, production accounts for just 5% of the total wine produced in the country, with pioneering wineries producing elegant wines of serious quality and effortless sophistication.

Its wine regions are almost entirely in the cooler climes of Margaret River and Great Southern on its south-western tip, and have been awarded more gold medals than any other Australian wine region.

Great Southern

Swinney

The Swinney property in Frankland River was established in 1922, providing high quality fruit to many of Western Australia's top wineries. With their heritage lying in grape growing, it was in the last decade that siblings, Matt and Janelle Swinney, fourth generation, established a boutique range of wines from the very best plots within their estate. The family's winemaking philosophy focuses on terroir, and the wines Swinney produce represent the very best of modern Western Australian wine. They continue to push boundaries by establishing Grenache, Tempranillo and Mourvedre as bush vines, a rarity in this part of the country.

Swan Valley

Corymbia

Inheriting the name of the most influential family in Western Australia's winemaking history comes with responsibilities that husband-and-wife duo, Rob and Genevieve Mann, don't take lightly. They speak openly about the legacy they are now a part of, and the unique, small-parcel wines they craft do them complete justice. Rob and Genevieve have more than 40 years of combined winemaking experience across Sicily, California, France and South Africa. Drawing on this broad range of influences, they have settled in the Swan Valley just outside of Perth.

Tasmania

Stargazer

Stargazer – brainchild of winemaker Samantha Connew – pays tribute to Abel Tasman, an explorer and navigator who spent much of his time gazing towards the heavens. Tasman, a Dutchman under the employ of the United East India Company, was the first European to sight Tasmania and the South Island of New Zealand, nineteen days later. Samantha, a gifted innovator in her own right, fell in love with the Island and the mystery surrounding it, and after only four vintages she has already gained five-star recognition from James Halliday, including the 2015 vintage.

A place of breath-taking, wind-whipped, rugged and unforgiving natural beauty, Tasmania offers Riesling, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir that express the purity of the island.

Typically bright and fresh, these wines have great structure and racy acidity.

Renowned for its Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc and Central Otago Pinot Noir, New Zealand also offers superb expressions of aromatic grape varieties. Riesling, Pinot Gris, Viognier, Grüner Veltliner and Gewürztraminer all thrive in New Zealand's ideal climate.

The landscape in New Zealand has remained fairly consistent over the past couple of years, with white wine making up 96% of sales volume, originating mainly from Marlborough. While Sauvignon Blanc has consistently been the most popular grape variety, dominance has grown, accounting for 93% of all wine sales volumes in New Zealand, while Pinot Grigio's importance waned in 2022.

North Island

Waiheke Island

Man O' War

Man O' War is a stunning array of coastal hillsides with high cliffs and pristine beaches on the eastern end of Waiheke Island. Captain James Cook first sighted the rows of magnificent Kauri trees on this coastline on his first voyage around the islands of New Zealand, and noted they'd make ideal masts for the Navy's Man O' War battleships, hence the land gained its name. Today, Man O' War is made up of 150 acres of vines planted in 76 individual hillside blocks, each with a distinct soil profile and microclimate. Winemaker Duncan McTavish ensures each small parcel of vines are carefully tended and harvested by hand, then vinified separately, fusing classic Old World techniques with innovative New World ideas to give his wines great intensity, depth, and personality.

Gimblett Gravels

Squawking Magpie

The Magpies are the Hawke's Bay rugby union team. As much as the team has made the kleptomaniac bird synonymous with Hawke's Bay, winemaker Gavin Yortt set out to make his wines synonymous with the renowned sub-region of Gimblett Gravels. Production of Squawking Magpie is limited, and in line with Gavin's preference for viticultural excellence and single-vineyard expressions.

Since the first vintage in 1999, true to its name, Squawking Magpie has been scooping up Gold and Silver medals all over the world. This beady-eyed magpie has its eyes on the prize whether it's the New Zealand International Wine Awards, the International Wine Challenge, the New World Wine Awards or the Decanter World Wine Awards.

Urlar

If farming is in the blood of ex-pat Scot Angus Thomson – he represents the fifth generation of Thomsons to work the land – then so too are wines and spirits. Both grandfathers were in the whisky business, but Angus forged a new path when he sold his farm in Forres and set up shop in NZ. More than a decade later, the Thomsons have a 31-hectare vineyard and a range of organic wines shining with beautiful varietal expression. The mission here is sustainability, following organic and biodynamic principles in the vineyard. It's no surprise then that the estate's name, 'Urlar' means 'the earth' in Gaelic.

Marlborough

Frost Pocket

The Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc category has spearheaded New Zealand's fierce expansion into the UK, and accounts for a significant proportion of all New Zealand's sales. This is one of the few regional and varietal combinations from the New World that's become a 'must-list' alongside well-established classics, such as Chablis, Rioja and Chianti.

Yealands Estate

In 2008, Peter Yealands was inspired by the rugged and breath-taking coastline in this corner of Awatere Valley, Marlborough. The area had previously been thought to be too windswept for grapes to thrive, and too uneven for efficient vineyard management. Peter embraced the challenge and established a cutting-edge winery that embraces its incredible location to offer a unique sense of place and hospitality. Yealands is the world's first winery to be certified Toit carbonzero since it was founded. The estate has now grown to over 1,000 hectares across the Awatere Valley, and today is in the hands of Natalie Christensen, named one of the World's Most Influential Women in Wine in 2018 by The Drinks Business.

Seresin Estate

Michael Seresin, born and educated in Wellington, left New Zealand for Europe in his early twenties to pursue a career as a cinematographer. Returning in 1992, Michael founded Seresin Estate in the maritime province of Marlborough. A “New World winery with an Old World approach,” Seresin offers elegant expressions of Pinot Noir, feisty Sauvignon Blanc and graceful Chardonnay. The vineyard has been farmed organically from the start with biodynamic principles introduced soon after.

Marlborough Grape Growers Cooperative

This cooperative specialises in making Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, one of the most in-demand wine categories in the world. The difference is that make entirely bespoke wines with flavour profiles suited to the needs of its buyers. Their wines live up to the tagline, “It's not ours; it's yours,” and yet still maintain incredible levels of accountability. The cooperative is entirely owned by the growers who contribute to it, so all profits return to the vineyards and the hands that tend them. The cooperative engages consumers in this accountability by directing them to exact coordinates of each source vineyard through QR codes on the back of each bottle.

Cloudy Bay

Established in 1985, Cloudy Bay was one of the first five wine makers to venture into Marlborough. At the time, it was almost an unimaginable place to set-up a vineyard. But Cloudy Bay's founder - David Hohnen - was convinced of its potential to produce great wine and invested in the best land in the region. Since then, Marlborough has risen to become New Zealand's leading wine region, as well as one of the finest winemaking locations in the world. The winery was named after Cloudy Bay, a body of water explorer Captain James Cook came across during his voyage to New Zealand in 1770. His discovery coincided with flooding in the region, which washed large amounts of sediment into the sea. Noticing the water's opaque appearance, Cook cleverly christened the area Cloudy Bay.

Carrick Winery

It's been more than 25 years since Steve and Barbara Green established the first of Carrick's vineyard plants on the Cainmuir terraces at Bannockburn in Central Otago. What was, at the time, a tangle of wild thyme and briar roses, has now evolved into one of the region's most successful producers. Pinot Noir is the trump card here - richly coloured, immensely aromatic and full of cherry and plum fruit - but don't underestimate Carrick's characterful Chardonnay, which has enviable fruit purity.

Peregrine Wines

Set in the rugged, majestic mountains of Central Otago, Peregrine is committed to enhancing the environment, both with their organically certified estates and winery, and their hands-on involvement in the conservation of New Zealand's native birds, the Saddleback and Mohua. Since 1998, passionate wine producers and estate owners Lindsay McLachlan and Greg Hay have pursued a philosophy of producing wine that's truly representative of the region, selecting only the very best hand-picked fruit from 11 sites around the Lowburn, Bendigo and Gibbston sub regions. Although best known as a specialist Pinot Noir house, it also produces excellent whites, including Riesling, Pinot Gris, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc.

The establishment of democracy brought an influx of innovation and inward investment, creating ever greater diversity in regions such as Stellenbosch, Paarl and Franschhoek, which proved themselves capable of making world-class wines from a broad range of international grape varieties.

At the same time, producers have been creating new and exciting expressions of local flagship grapes Pinotage and Chenin Blanc, as well as exploring dynamic new cool climate regions such as Elgin.

Western Cape

MAN Family Vineyards

The story behind MAN Family Wines started as a simple idea, with its founders, Jose, Tyrrel and Philip resolving to make wines that they would actually want to buy and drink. To keep the peace over the amount of time they foresaw spending making this vision a reality, the winery was named with the first initials of the founders' three wives; Marie, Anette and Nicky. Today, MAN Family are champions of unirrigated, quality wines, with great packaging.

Ken Forrester Wines

Without the efforts of industrious men like Ken Forrester, South African Chenin Blanc might be scarcely more than a footnote to the country's winemaking history – a workhorse grape, producing vast amounts of unmemorable white wine. Thankfully, this Zambia-born former restaurateur saw beyond the grape's obvious quaffability, going on to produce wines such as The FMC that have not only elevated the varietal to world renown, but resulted in their creator being bestowed the moniker 'Mr Chenin.'

Thelema Mountain Vineyards

Cabernet may be its trump card, but the origins of Thelema owe more to the wines of Burgundy than Bordeaux: it was a bottle of Puligny-Montrachet that lured Gyles Webb away from accountancy in Durban to winemaking in Stellenbosch.

Armed with a winemaking degree and influenced by travels in Tuscany, Bordeaux and California, Gyles and his wife Barbara – a noted triathlete – bought Thelema, an old fruit farm high on the slopes of the Simonsberg mountain, in 1983. This is the wilder side of Stellenbosch, where spotted leopards roam the vines and a combination of elevation and eucalyptus trees creates a much-prized style of Cabernet with a distinctively minty freshness.

These days Gyles is Cellar Master, with the talented Schultz brothers (Rudi and Werner) responsible for the winemaking and vineyards respectively. But the philosophy remains true to Gyles' original vision, centred on the principle of what he calls 'benign neglect' – minimal fining and filtration, and no use of commercial yeasts in the red wines. True too to the Thelema name, taken from the idealised concept of a new world order imagined by 16th century French monk, physician and writer Rabelais.

Morgenster

New and Old Worlds meet at Morgenster. The estate was bought by Giulio Bertrand in 1992 and is now run by his daughter and granddaughter, Federica and Vittoria Bertrand. He held a vision of making the best Bordeaux-style wine outside France.The property's shale soils, cool breezes and proximity to the Atlantic provide ideal growing conditions for the French varietals planted there. Only a portion of each vintage is released on launch, with the rest kept, evaluated bi-yearly and released in batches, allowing customers access to several vintages of the same wine.

Kleinood

The de Villiers family has left deep footprints in the history of the South African wine industry through the centuries, and Kleinood and the Tamboerskloof wines are no exception. The French Huguenot, Jacob de Villiers, bought the wine farm Boschendal between Stellenbosch and Franschhoek, after immigrating to the Cape of Good Hope in 1688. In the year 2000 Gerard de Villiers, a direct descendant of Jacob, and his wife, Libby, found the piece of land that stole their hearts – complete with mountains, river and a pristine tract of indigenous forest. Tamboerskloof is once again an integral part of the de Villiers family history as well as that of Cape Town and the Boland. The name Tamboerskloof means the valley (kloof) of the drums (tamboer).

Devon Valley

Martin Meinert

Established by Martin Meinert, the man involved in the creation of some of South Africa's finest wines of the past two decades, comes this special and personal family project. Devon Crest Vineyard – an apt name for an estate sitting on the south-facing ridge of the Devon Valley with distant views of False Bay – is a more decorative title than the one the vineyard had when the Meinerts bought it in 1987: Remainder of Farm 78, Division of Stellenbosch. This is traditionally red wine country, expressed through wines such as Synchronicity's blend of Cabernet, Merlot and bush-vine Pinotage, so it might come as a surprise to find a white Merlot, called 'The Italian Job,' among their impressive selection.

Elgin

Sutherland

After establishing Thelema Mountain Vineyards as one of the icon South African wine estates, Gyles Webb embarked on a new challenge in the early 2000's; to develop a range of cool climate, site specific, small volume wines. Following a long search, Gyles discovered a small apple orchard in the Elgin Valley, and Sutherland Vineyards was born. Elgin is uniquely set on a high plateau surrounded by four mountain ranges and situated just 9km off the Atlantic Ocean, creating the ideal growing conditions for cool-climate Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and lighter styles of Cabernet. One can expect wines of vibrancy, linearity and modernity.

Brazil is South America's third largest producer of wine, but it has traditionally flown under the international radar because much of its produce is destined for domestic consumption. Brazil's economy grew significantly in the 1990s, and the country's growing class of businesspeople developed an appetite for imported fine wine. Seeing an opportunity, local winemakers responded by developing a competitive domestic offering. Vale dos Vinhedos (meaning "valley of the vineyards") was the first appellation recognised in Brazil, in 2002. It now covers just over 8,000 hectares at an average altitude of 700m.

As of 2022, rosé held just under a 6% share of wine sales volume in Brazil. White wine is responsible for 65% of share in the market, and red wine is responsible for 30%. While Chardonnay is the most popular grape variety, both Pinot Noir and Tannat have decreased in presence between 2021 and 2022 as they have been traded out for Cabernet Franc, which has grown in importance over the past year.

Vale dos Vinhedos

Casa Valduga

In 1875, the first generation of the Valduga family emigrated from Northern Italy to Brazil. They soon began cultivating vines in what is known today as Vale dos Vinhedos, meaning ‘The Valley of Vineyards’. As one of the oldest wineries in Brazil, Casa Valduga is still a family business after six generations.

Sunny, dry summers, the twin cooling influences of the Pacific's Humboldt Current and the lofty Andes, and plentiful water thanks to mountain snowmelt means the term 'viticultural paradise' really does apply here. Chilean winemakers are increasingly choosing to push boundaries, embracing experimentation and exploring more marginal conditions in exciting regions such as Leyda and Elqui, while retaining sight of the quality offered by established Central Valley enclaves including Colchagua and Maipo.

At the start of the decade there was an even balance between red and white wine, but as of 2022 white wine has held 16% more share than red, driving the importance of Sauvignon Blanc in Chile.

The Casablanca Valley region has become more established in recent years, doubling its share of sales volume since 2019.

Isla de Maipo

De Martino

De Martino was the first winery to label a wine as a single varietal Carménère, and also the first winery to export Carménère from Chile. Having won the “Winery of the Year” accolade on three separate occasions, De Martino very much sets the tone worldwide for the quality that Chilean wine can achieve.

With three generations of expertise under their belts, De Martino isn't interested in resting on its laurels. In 2011, winemaker Marcelo Retamal made a concerted push to modernise the style of his portfolio. Tapping into global trends for picking earlier, using only indigenous yeast and avoiding new oak, the De Martino house style has evolved towards elegance and purer fruit expression.

Leyda Valley

Viña Leyda

Casablanca Valley might represent Chile's first intrepid steps into cool-climate production, but it's Leyda that took a series of determined, confident strides. Just 14km from the vast Pacific Ocean, the Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Syrah planted here express a crispness, minerality and fine-boned structure not found elsewhere in Chile's viticultural paradise. Under the direction of winemaker Viviana Navarrete, Leyda's pioneering spirit has continued with single vineyards, along with successful experimentation in the way of different clones and soil types. One of her most exciting endeavours is a single vineyard Lot 4 Sauvignon Blanc produced from a Sancerre clone – the result which is wonderfully elegant and mineral – as a relation of Sancerre should be, with added richness and fine acidity.

Cachapoal

Viña San Pedro

In 1865, the Correa brothers set up Viña San Pedro with the intention of spearheading the introduction of Old World grape varieties to the Curicó Valley. Today, this is one of Chile's most prominent wineries and has continued live up to their heritage by embarking on a joint venture in 2002 to create fine wines. In partnership with Château Dassault in Saint-Émilion, they are based in the foothills of the Andes, where they focus on production of fine wines from Altair and Sideral.

Itata

Hit Wines

This brand new project brings together one of the Spain's finest young winemakers, Elias Lopez and Fernando Almeda, a man with over 30 years experience crafting wines across Chile. Drawing on Fernando's deep knowledge of the different terroirs of Itata, they seek to champion the unsung viticultural heroes of this often overlooked region and give a voice to the ancient vines that inhabit the land. The first vintage, this is something truly exciting from the New world's oldest winemaking area.

Elqui Valley

Viña Falernia

If your acquaintance with the vineyards of Chile doesn't extend beyond Maipo, Rapel and Colchagua, the Elqui Valley might come as a bit of a shock. First of all, this northern enclave of earth tremors and UFO-spotting really does resemble a valley, running east to west and with a growing population of vines drawing on the vital irrigation of the Elqui River (there's typically less than three inches of rainfall a year in this arid region).

At a time when Elqui was better known for distilling Pisco and for growing other fruit, Falernia was a true pioneer, led by cousins Aldo Olivier Gramola (who also makes Pisco) and Trentino winemaker Giorgio Flessati.

This Italian-inspired revolution has seen the planting of a 320-hectare estate on four sites along the valley, from the sometimes fog-shrouded, low-altitude area near the Pacific right up to more than 2,000 metres above sea level – some of the highest altitude vineyards on earth.

This diversity of microclimates and soil types allows for everything from Sauvignon Blanc to Syrah to thrive here, expressing a purity of fruit and freshness that is the envy of many vineyards further south.

New last year from Falernia were a Riesling and a Malbec, the latter benefiting from Elqui's combination of unrivalled sunny weather to concentrate fruit, and cool nights to preserve elegance and finesse.

Central Valley

Lañya

In response to the growing demand for good value Chilean Sauvignon and Merlot we introduced the Lañya range a couple of years ago. The Sauvignon is dry and delicately aromatic, and the Merlot is soft and supple. The wines are smartly packaged and offer tremendous value for money. Perfect for house wines and by-the-glass listings.

Lañya and Los Tortolitos are all produced by Viñedos Puertas, a family-run business founded in 1950. The vineyard is comprised of 80 hectares of fields irrigated by water flowing down from the Andes Mountains, and a one-million-litre capacity winery known as El Milagro, located at the heart of the Curico Valley. The wines embody the character of the region, and display brilliant freshness. On the back of growing market demand for good value Chilean wines, we're pleased to offer the Los Tortolitos range within our portfolio.

Argentina boasts a rich cultural heritage in relation to wine, with more than 400 years of history behind it. The wines have established an identity as exciting, quality focused and food-led, with plush and velvety Malbec leading the revolution. We are very excited about our Argentinian range, which boasts unprecedented diversity coupled with some of the most sought-after names on the market.

Red wine continues its dominance in Argentina, with its share of sales volume growing 18% since the beginning of the decade. White wine was responsible for a quarter of the sales volume back then, but this has now fallen to 9%. Almost three quarters of Argentina's wine sales volume in 2022 originated in Mendoza, with Salta following as the next most prominent region, holding 16% of the share.

Mendoza

Trapiche

Established in the foothills of The Andes, Mendoza in 1883, Trapiche is one of Argentina’s oldest wineries, and its largest exported premium brand, sold in more than 80 countries. Trapiche boasts one of the country’s most diverse wine portfolios including a range of award-winning Malbecs - that reflect the viticultural history of the region. Under the direction of winemaker Daniel Pi, Trapiche sources premium grapes from Argentina’s top wine-growing sites, including more than 2,400 acres of proprietary vineyards and a stable of more than 300 independent growers.

Santa Ana

The story of Santa Ana is defined by constant evolution and development, from the winery’s foundation by Italian émigré and winemaking pioneer Luis Tirasso in 1891, to the company’s leadership in the Argentinian market in the late 1970s, and its exploration of overseas destinations in the years since. Today, its wines are sold in more than 50 countries around the world, and the secret of Santa Ana’s success lies firmly in the vineyards. Esteemed winemaker Rodolfo ‘Opi’ Sadler has access to an enviable array of quality fruit sourced from all over Mendoza.

Uco Valley

Susana Balbo

With a career of over 40 years, Susana Balbo is the most renowned female winemaker of Argentina. A pioneer in Argentinian wine exports and an ambassador of our viticulture to the world, she has become a symbol and a key figure in both the Argentina and the world wine scene.

Susana's innovative spirit pushes her to continuously develop wines of unique character and quality. Her winery's portfolio includes Susana Balbo Signature, Crios, Nosotros and BenMarco ranges.

Crios

Crios wines were created by Susana Balbo as a demonstration of love and affection towards her children, José and Ana, who both work side by side with her at the family winery. These young, fresh wines enhance the power of hands, valuable tools that allow us to create or to care for our loved ones.

Cafayate

El Esteco

Among the Calchaqui Valley's lush vegetation, rivers and rocky mountains, there emerges, unexpectedly, a stretch of desert. At an altitude of 1,800 metres, with its radiant sunshine and ideal temperature ranging from hot days to cool nights, the environment is perfect for vine growing. And it is here, in the heart of this unique valley where El Esteco stands. French immigrants David and Salvador Michel founded the winery in 1892, taking advantage of this special region to produce distinctive and elegant high-end wines, with great concentration of colour, deep aromas and well-defined flavours.

Humberto Canale

If Río Negro is a relative newcomer to many people's wine repertoires, Humberto Canale has experience on its side. The winery was established way back in 1909, taking its name from its founder, the pioneering engineer who did so much to develop Patagonian agriculture. More than 100 vintages and four generations later, Guillermo Barzi Canale is at the helm, overseeing a range of elegant wines that run the gamut from Pinot Noir to Malbec and Cabernet Franc, not forgetting a pair of excellent value white and red blends.

Winemaking in North America has never been more exciting, offering wines of great balance and value, from sun-bathed Sonoma to wind-whipped Monterey, and the cooler parts of Sacramento's Delta region to the rich depths of Paso Robles reds. The cooler climes of Washington State and the iconic Napa Valley, as well as luscious icewines from Canada's Niagara Peninsula, also add depth and excitement to the portfolio.

At the start of the decade, red wines dominated Northern American sales, followed by rosé. The ranking has since shifted, with rosé gaining traction, accounting for over half the 2022 wine sales volume for wines from the region. At the same time, red wine has lost momentum, resulting in a fairly even split of red and white wine sales. Zinfandel has grown in prominence over the last couple of years, while Cabernet Sauvignon has seen its share of sales volume fall.

The largest, best known and most diverse winemaking region in the United States of America, it’s not hard to see why California inspires so much interest.

Varying from abundant sunshine to cool coastal air, a hugely diverse range of climates contributes to wines of outstanding quality that are largely characterised by ripe, fruity flavours and an abundance of oak.

Napa Valley

Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars

A Napa Valley ‘first-growth’ estate producing world-renowned Cabernet Sauvignon of exceptional beauty and long life. The story of Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars is now legendary: Founded in 1970, the winery was thrust into the spotlight when a bottle of the 1973 Cabernet Sauvignon from the Stag’s Leap Vineyard won the now-famous 1976 Paris Tasting, beating some of France’s greatest wines. The historic tasting, which has become known as the Judgement of Paris, fundamentally transformed how California wines were viewed worldwide; the stunning victory over some of the most renowned wines of Bordeaux launched Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars into the ranks of the world’s most noteworthy Cabernet Sauvignon producers. Over the years, the wines of Stag’s Leap Wine Cellars have become some of the most highly regarded and collected wines worldwide.

Louis M Martini

Louis M. Martini is an iconic Napa Valley winery that has crafted world-class Cabernet Sauvignon since 1933, relying on the simple premise that the best grapes make the best wines. Pioneering founder Louis M. Martini played an integral role in establishing Napa Valley as one of the world’s premier winegrowing regions. Today, the winery continues this winemaking tradition with a range of celebrated Cabernet Sauvignon wines from Napa and Sonoma.

Sonoma

Patz & Hall

Founded in 1988, Patz & Hall has become one of California’s most highly regarded wineries with a celebrated portfolio of single-vineyard wines. To achieve their goal of making exceptional limited-production Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays, the founders held a commitment to developing close personal relationships with many of California’s finest growers, which have become the cornerstones of the winery’s success. In Patz & Hall’s state-of-the-art, purpose-built winery in Sonoma, both traditional and cutting-edge techniques are applied, including a unique, custom barrel program. To reveal the distinct identity of the legendary sites it works with, Patz & Hall applies a consistent winemaking approach that has been refined to underscore the finesse, depth and complexity of each vineyard.

Share A Splash

Share A Splash wine co. (formerly Cannonball Wine Co.) was established by Yoav Gilat in 2006, and since then has grown from a modest Cabernet producer to a solid industry player. Their mission is to produce wines that offer quality, character, and approachability that surpass expectations for the price, and always deliver a serious splash! Share A Splash wine co. winemaker Ondine Chattan embodies the company’s uncomplicated approach to wine: ‘I am inspired by the purity of flavours in the grape varieties themselves and endeavour to present those flavours in various ways – be it bold and direct – no translation needed, or subtle and layered – unfolding slowly’. Share A Splash wine co. embraces the belief that wine, like life, is best enjoyed when shared.

MacMurray

Actor Fred MacMurray bought the MacMurray ranch in 1941 and embraced the rancher’s lifestyle, raising prize-winning cattle and farming crops, while his children rode horses through the hills. Transformed into a world-class vineyard in 1996, MacMurray Ranch quickly became one of Russian River’s most acclaimed Pinot Noir vineyards. Today, the estate has expanded and encompasses vineyards throughout the Russian River Valley and the Central Coast.

Clarksburg

Bogle Family Vineyards

It’s now over 50 years since father and son Chris and Warren Bogle established their first vineyard on eight hectares of land near Clarksburg in California. While the Bogle estate has since expanded to cover 14 different sites in the cooler areas of the Delta region near Sacramento, the boutique philosophy embraced from the outset still continues. Siblings Jody, Warren and Chris run the operation today at the 6th generation of Bogles in California, applying the same dedication and passion as the generations that came before them.

California

Bonny Doon Vineyard

Randall Grahm is the daring, pioneering brains behind Bonny Doon. Since he set up the winery in 1983, he has been the driving force behind the cult craze for transposing Rhône varietals to the USAs West Coast, spotting the similarities between the Mediterranean climate and terroirs. A by-now iconic front cover of The Wine Spectator cemented Randall’s reputation when it featured him in fancy dress as The Lone Ranger with the headline, “The Rhône Ranger: Maverick Californian”

No true maverick can bear to stand still for long, so Randall recently rejigged his entire range and has consolidated it to just four wines. The philosophy is stylish, elegant, accessible, great value and fun. Randall keeps his link to the Rhône Valley alive with his branding: the UFO on the label of Le Cigare Volant is a nod to the notorious law in Châteauneuf-du-Pape outlawing UFOs.

Orin Swift

The story of Orin Swift Cellars dates back to 1995, when on a lark, David Swift Phinney travelled to Florence for a study semester and quickly fell in love with wine. Three years later, Phinney started his own venture with just two tonnes of Zinfandel and an insatiable passion for his craft. What started as a tiny production project has now grown into an empire of wines distributed across the world, with Phinney establishing himself as one of the most influential and innovative winemakers in California.

West Coast Swing

West Coast Swing is the official state dance of California and can be danced to almost any music; it’s all about matching rhythm, melody and mood, and the same can be said for the delicious White Zinfandel. This a wine bursting with vibrant ripe peach, mango and melon aromas, while a fresh acidity balances the sweetness of this much-loved classic.

With the first vines planted here in the early 1800s, at least 40% of the state’s vineyards were planted in the last decade alone.

The winemakers who have chosen to plant here are still experimenting with grape varieties and vineyard sites. The warm, dry climate means that bold and red grapes such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah are key players here.

Washington State

Château Ste. Michelle

In the realm of new world regions, Château Ste. Michelle is truly a timeless classic – the founding winery of Washington State. Established in 1934, Château Ste. Michelle pioneered vinifera grape growing in Washington State and has been producing top class European varietal wines under the Château Ste. Michelle label since 1967. The winery combines an ongoing dedication to research and innovation with a commitment to classic winemaking traditions to craft the highest quality wines from Washington across many price points.

14 Hands

14 Hands wines are inspired by the unbridled spirit of the wild horses that once freely roamed eastern Washington. Measuring just fourteen hands tall — a “hand” equivalent to the width of one’s palm — these tenacious little horses would travel down from the hills every day to drink from the mighty Columbia River and graze along the riverbank, then retreat back to cool off at night. Washington’s wild horses have become living symbols of the pioneer spirit of the American West.

Oregon

Omero

If Napa is the Bordeaux of California, then Oregon is the Burgundy. There are obvious climatic and varietal parallels, but Omero Cellars sees things slightly differently.

This family-owned and operated winery, set in Ribbon Ridge, the smallest AVA of the Willamette Valley, is quick to point out that it's not aiming to replicate the Côte d'Or, but to champion Oregon's unique soils, climate, fruit – and most importantly people. It's an individuality that is apparent in the Omero wines, from Pinot Noir to Chardonnay. Winemaker and biodynamics specialist Chad Stock's Pinot Noirs are the product of an attention to detail that borders on obsession, from the tailoring of Burgundy clones to Oregon terroir, to his treatment of prized yeast cultures as if they were sourdough.

	bin no	product	vintage	cs size	cs price	btl price
Ve	A283	Willamette Valley Pinot Noir	2017	12x75cl	286.20	21.85

Oregon's cool climate, high-quality Pinot Noir has been likened to Burgundy in terms of quality, and due to popularity, this grape is planted across 60% of the region.

Long summers which are warm and dry, combined with cool evenings that preserve acidity, help produce the elegant and distinctly ripe character that Oregon wines have become known for.

Ontario

Peller Family Estates

The Pellers are Icewine pioneers, and were one of the first families to explore the possibilities of this unique Canadian style of wine. Commitment to Icewine production isn't for the faint-hearted, but this didn't daunt the Pellers; the family took it one step further, planting their Niagara Peninsula vineyards closer to Lake Ontario to make their products even fresher and more food-friendly. Their efforts paid off – the wines that result are uniquely unctuous, with a piercing streak of lip-smacking freshness.

One of the great sweet wines of the world (alongside Sauternes, Tokaji and Vin de Constance), Canadian Icewine is a remarkable style, born on the Niagara Peninsula between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie and based on what is likely the wine world's toughest grape harvest (late December, -10°C). Perfected by generations of growers into a divine combination of luscious sweetness, biting acidity and dazzling purity of fruit, nectar is the tasting note that springs most readily to mind here.
