Château La Gaffelière

Bordeaux, France

Owned by the same family since 1705, Château La Gaffelière belongs to the Malet Roquefort family for several generations. This property has the unique distinction of being one of the oldest, family-owned vineyards in the Saint-Émilion appellation of Bordeaux. The family can trace their roots in the Right Bank all the way back to the 1400's. With vines on the premium Saint-Émilion Grand Cru plateau close to Château Ausone and not far from Château Bélair-Monange, this 22-hectare property classified as a Premier Grand Cru Classé is located in the centre of the Saint-Émilion appellation benefiting from a more continental climate compared to the maritime Médoc. La Gaffelière vineyards (Cabernet Sauvignon 5%, Merlot 65%, Cabernet Franc 30%) lie on a sloped sandy/clay-limestone topsoil and limestone subsoil. The family also produces Dame Gaffelière (Second Wine) from their younger vines and Château l'Eglise D'Armens (Third Wine) a more approachable Saint-Émilion Grand Cru.

Château La Ganne

Bordeaux, France

Château La Ganne is a 4-hectare family estate located in the south west of Pomerol appellation, owned for four generations by the Dubois family. Vineyard is made of gravel and sandy deposits with a subsoil rich in iron also called “crasse de fer” revealing velvety tannins and its delicate aromas. Nowadays, Paule and Michel Dubois work hard to preserve their legacy. With its 750 hectares, Pomerol is considered to be one of the smallest appellations in Bordeaux's Right Bank but is considered a be one of the most famous in terms of quality.

Aubert et Mathieu

Languedoc-Roussillon, France

Aubert & Mathieu is the story of two friends, Anthony Aubert and Jean-Charles Mathieu, who met at school. A few years later, they met up for a drink: Anthony was already in the wine trade and Jean-Charles was in corporate banking. Realising they shared an ambition to make wines their own way, in 2016, they launched Aubert & Mathieu. The first vintage was released in March 2019 and very successful on Paris' trendy restaurant scene. The Aubert et Mathieu identity is based on producing niche wines from the best terroirs of Languedoc-Roussillon while highlighting the nuances and singularities of each appellation. The DNA of their wines show the perfect mastery of freshness, balance and the search for complexity. Inspiration, carefree and a little fantasy led them on their way! Aubert et Mathieu is also completely carbon neutral.

Alma Carraovejas

Ribera Del Duero, Nieva and Galicia, Spain

Spain's new top tier estate, the Alma Carraovejas group champions the best of different regions across the peninsula. From the classic Pago de Carraovejas in Ribera del Duero, to the cult Verdejos of OSSIAN in Nieva, to Galicia's stunning Emilio Rojo O Gran Mein, they are pushing the quality of Spanish wines to new heights. Having sought counsel from superstars such as Rafael Palacios and Javier Ausas (Vega Sicilia), the baton has been passed to three powerhouse women: Patricia Benitez (Pingus/Vega Sicilia with two 100-point vintages), Almudena Calvo (Spain's top Winemaker 2019) and Laura Montero (Alvaro Palacios, Peter Sisseck). With constant investment, they are continually looking for new projects to improve and become Spain's most sought-after and desired group of wineries.

Bodegas Monóvar

Alicante, Spain

With the help of Raul Perez, MG Wines and the Poveda family have renovated and rejuvenated this incredible estate, with Fondillones going back to the beginning of the 20th century. An incredibly unique wine that naturally achieves its residual sugar and alcohol content from raisined Monastrell grapes, the wines are aged for a minimum of 20 years in Canadian oak foudres to yield something that is truly one of a kind. Minimal intervention at its best, this is something every oenophile should have in their cellar.

Sauska

Villány and Tokaji, Hungary

Christian and Andrea Sauska have been crafting highly admired Hungarian wines for nearly 20 years. In the famous Tokaji region they make exceptional dry white wines from both local and international grape varieties, as well as classic sweet aszú and late harvest wines. Traditional method sparkling wines are also made under the expert eye of Régis Camus of Rare Champagne, with a dedicated new cellar being constructed in Budapest. The second winery is in Villány, near Christian's hometown in the deep south on the border with Croatia. This winery produces red and rosé wines, and is home to a world-class restaurant. The family's relentless drive towards quality includes practising organic viticulture (non-certified) and employing biodynamic practises in the vineyard. The Sauska family are pushing the boundaries of quality wine in Hungary, proving its potential as a prime destination for fine wine lovers.

Casa Valduga

Vale dos Vinhedos, Brazil

In 1875, the first generation of the Valduga family emigrated from Northern Italy to Brazil. They soon began cultivating vines in what is known today as Vale dos Vinhedos, meaning 'The Valley of Vineyards'. As one of the oldest wineries in Brazil, Casa Valduga is still a family business after six generations.

Squawking Magpie

Gimblett Gravels, New Zealand

The Magpies are the Hawke's Bay rugby union team. Much like the team has made the kleptomaniac bird synonymous with Hawke's Bay, winery owner Gavin Yortt set out to make his wines synonymous with the renowned sub-region of Gimblett Gravels. Production of Squawking Magpie is limited, and in line with Gavin's preference for viticultural excellence and single-vineyard expressions.

Since the first vintage in 1999, true to its name, Squawking Magpie has been scooping up Gold and Silver medals all over the world. This beady-eyed magpie has its eyes on the prize whether it's the New Zealand International Wine Awards, the International Wine Challenge, the New World Wine Awards or the Decanter World Wine Awards.

Bonny Doon California, USA

Randall Graham is the daring, pioneering brains behind Bonny Doon. Since he set up the winery in 1983, he has been the driving force behind the cult craze for transposing Rhône varietals to the USA's West Coast. The craze was spawned by the similarities between the Mediterranean climate and terroirs on either side of the Atlantic. A by-now iconic front cover of The Wine Spectator cemented Randall's reputation when it featured him in fancy dress as The Lone Ranger with the headline, "The Rhône Ranger: Maverick Californian".

No true maverick can bear to stand still for long, so Randall recently rejigged his entire range and has consolidated it to just four wines. The philosophy is stylish, elegant, accessible, great value and fun. Randall keeps his link to the Rhône Valley alive with his branding: the UFO on the label of Le Cigare Volant is a nod to the notorious law in Châteauneuf-du-Pape outlawing UFOs.
