Eruzione 1614 Etna Pinot Nero 2022

RED STILL WINE

ITALY

SICILY

ORGANIC

SUITABLE FOR VEGANS

TASTING NOTE

Exotic Pinot Noir from volcanic soil with a very Sicilian touch of wildness, fragrant with carob, bergamot and orange peel, with wild blackberry, cherry and balsamic on the palate and a final, defining sliver of graphite.

VITICULTURE

The vines which produce this wine grow on the lava flow formed by the 1614 eruption of Mount Etna; a legendary event that lasted for ten years. A small area contains the Pinot Nero which has been cultivated in this area for centuries, even if sparsely. The result is an absolutely original version of this noble variety.

FOOD MATCHING

Game is a natural pairing - try quail or woodcock. Also perfect with a slice of fresh Caciocavallo cheese, or with a cauliflower souffle.
