

Viña Leyda

Sauvignon Blanc Reserva 2021

WHITE
STILL WINE

CHILE

CENTRAL VALLEY

TASTING NOTE

Juicy and citrussy Sauvignon Blanc from Chile, a bowlful of limes, mandarins grapefruit and passion fruit with a waft of herbs.

VITICULTURE

Unique microclimate. Because of the unique expression and incredible quality, the winery soon had its own DO founded as D.O. Leyda Valley in 2001. The wines are born from two unique sites, El Granito, just 4Km from the sea and El Maiten at 12Km from the sea, both with ancient granitic soil which lend a certain minerality to all the wines in the range.

VINIFICATION

Picked at night to preserve freshness and fermented in stainless steel at low temperatures to allow the minerality to shine through in this typically grassy Sauvignon.

FOOD MATCHING

A brilliant match to French bistro salad with warm Goat Cheese croutons.
