RHEINGAU

FOR VEGANS

TASTING NOTE

Lush and generous Riesling with rounded tropical fruits given definition by tangy gooseberry and a breath of smoke and flint, with a fragrance of orange zest on the finish. The palate is dry and stony, with terrific intensity and finish.

VITICULTURE

The impressive Berg Schlossberg vineyard (meaning 'Castle Mountain') lies in the bend of the Rhine River, west of Rudesheim. Steeper than anywhere else in Rheingau, the vine rows climb a 45% gradient from 120-160m above sea level. This vineyard gets plenty of sunshine, being south-facing and getting reflections from the river.

FOOD MATCHING

The balance of freshness and richness give some exciting possibilities. Try it with grilled fish with exotic salads, or lightly roasted roasted beef with lemon garlic marinade.
