TASTING NOTE

A moreish and lively German Riesling. The palate is dry, yet full-flavoured with juicy acidity. The nose exhibits a blend of spice and pineapple, the mouth a vibrant bowlful of tangerine and grapefruit.

VITICULTURE

The vineyard is located in the middle of Rheingau with an average age of 20 years. The vines are trellised with the Guyot system and the canopy management is Leitz's own structure. Sustainable farming practice is employed including leaf removal.

VINIFICATION

Whole cluster pressing, overnight settling on skins and then temperature controlled fermentation in stainless steel. The wine is left on lees for 4 months and filtered via cross flow.

FOOD MATCHING

Brilliant as an aperitif with oysters, delicious with Sashimi as well as richer, oily fish.
