

2020 Pulp Fiction Yellow Label Organic (Orange), Erich Machherndl

Country: Austria

Region: Wachau

Grapes: Grape Muscat Blanc à Petits Grains 34 ; Grape Pinot Blanc 33 ; Grape Frühroter Veltliner 33

Tasting Note:

Orange-tinted aromatic Austrian white, bursting with apricot, peach and juicy Braeburn apple, with a nice lemony waft of citra hops.

Winemaking:

The Pulp Fiction range is Erich Machherndl's outlet for his insatiable experimentation and curiosity - one-off wines that defy classification! Pulp Fiction No. 7 breaks all the rules. It is a crazy blend of equal parts Frühroter Veltliner, Muscat and Weissburgunder. Unlike a normal white wine it is fermented on its skins in 300-litre oak casks to extract flavour, body and a slight orange colour. It is unfiltered with no added sulphur.

Vineyard :

Sourced from Machherndl's spectacular terraced vineyards in the Wachau. The approach is hands-off, with no irrigation or added fertiliser used. Certified Organic farming.

Food matching:

This is so fresh and floral that it is one of the few wines that truly pairs really well with Indian-style curries. It can also stand up to citrus salads. Delicious to drink on its own or during a picnic.
